SWEET CEMETERY MARKERS

Following is a list of photographs of tombstone markers of the SWEET and related families taken during August, 1989. Should you be interested in obtaining a print of any of these photos, please advise me by specifying the photo number as listed and including a $2.00 fee for each photo ordered. The information below is from the inscriptions on the markers and may or may not be correct or confirm with prevailing records.

DANIEL HOLMES CEMETERY

JACKSONVILLE (MORGAN) iLLINOIS

Location: near outskirts of town on southeast side is a park with fence all around it and there are service club signs posted here. There is also a replica of a ferris wheel for which Jacksonville is famous. Go south here and staying in left-hand lane, turn toward Lake Jacksonville -- go to end of road past lake. Take first turn right, road going left--mobile home on corner. This is Holmes Cemetery. Mile north of Lake Jacksonville, N.W. quarter of Sec. 2, Twp. 14, N. range 10 W.

30-1 Photo of name of cemetery and fence surrounding it.

30-2 Photo of cemetery from road.

Dear Ray:

I am well aware of your tremendous research efforts on the Howard Family. The more I ponder your relative, Mrs. Athla Tankersle's genealogical data, I think we relate through the Leach, Robinson. Sweets, Dunn's and other allied families of Illinois and Indiana. These families may relate to Eliakim Howard and [2] Margaret Truesdale. I connect through Alanson "Lant" Howard and Elizabeth Sweet. Eliakim and Alanson were sons of Sylvester Howard and wife Lyida Bosworth Sweet.

Sylvester and Alanson Howard were some of Illinois and Southeastern Nebraska's earliest Pioneer Families.

I quote from U.S. Treasury Department Claim Notification #179668, dated November 29, 1904, pertaining to Isaac Steele, as follows:

"In the case of Isaac Steele, private, Co. H, 3 Ind. Inf., and Pvt., Co. F, 70 Ind. Vols., a balance has been found due this office, and a certificate No. 8.429825 & 429826 dated Nov. 25, 1904' has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment, as follows: $42.14 to Francis J. Hart, (child), Anderson, Ind.; $7.02 to Sarah King, (grandchild), Morrisville, Ill.; $7.02 each to Perry Leach, and Susan Howard, (grandchildren), Louisville, Ill.; $7.02 to Martha Grotts, (grandchild), Alma, Ill.; $7.02 to Monroe Leach, 212 E. Martin St., Litchfield, Ill.; $14.04 each to Chas. W. Steele and Isaac C. Steele (grandchildren), all of Ohiowa, Nebr.; $10.53 to Isaac Stringer, (grandchild), Shelbyville, Ind.; $10.53 to Lydia Lawson, (grandchild), R.R. No. 8, Anderson, Ind.; $2.35 each to Alfred Lynch and Hattie Harkey, (great grandchildren), Irving, Ill.; $2.35 to Della Leach, (great grandchild), R. R. D. No. 1, Waggoner, Ill.; $21.07 to John W. German, (natural guardian of Ray Amos, Roscoe Amos & Mollie Amos, great grandchildren), Franklin, Ind.; $10.54 to Effie L. Perry, (guardian of John W. Stringer, Jessie O. Stringer & David G. Stringer, great grandchildren), Elwood, Ind....." 2

Further, I quote from the Louisville?, Clay County, Illinois, September 11?, 1928 newspaper, as follows:

"PUBLICATION NOTICE

State of Illinois, Clay County, ss. the November Term, A.D. 1928.

James W. Cogswell, Administrator of the Estate of Joel Robinson Howard, deceased vs. Malinda Jane Lynch. William Henry Howard, Ira Judson Howard, Lydia Janett Sharp, Edwin F. Howard, Margaret B. Lynch, Joel R. Howard, Ida Edith Hawk, Jennie L. Howard, Elsie Leola Howard, C.R. Howard, Edgar H. Leach, Floyd M. Leach, Mina Armstrong, Orous I. Leach, Charles Oscar Gilmore, Nora Balk, Earl Creamer, Rosa Watts, Alice Kimes,Roy Kimes, Ruby Kellogg, Galen Gilmore, Everett Kimes, Lavern Kimes, Goldie Kimes, Gladys Kimes, and George McElyea, Pettion to sell Real Estate.

Affidavit of the non-residence of Malinda Jane Leach, Ira Judson Howard, Lydia Janett Sharp, Joel R. Howard, Ida Edith Hawk, Charles Oscar Gilmore, Nora Balk, Rosa Watts, Alice Kimes, Roy Kimes, Ruby Kellogg, Galen Gilmore, Everett Kimes, Laverne Kimes, Goldie Kimes, and Glayds Kimes, defendants above named having been filed in the of the Clerk of the County Court of Clay County, notice is hereby given to the said nonresident defendants that the Plaintiff James W. Coggswell, administrator of the Estate of Joel Robinson Howard, deceased, has filed his petition in the said Court of Clay county for an order to sell the premises belonging to the Estate of said deceased of so much of it as may be needed to pay the debts of said deceased, and described as follows, to-wit:

The North Half of the Southwest quarter of Section Thirty-one (310 Town Four North, Range Six East of the Third Principal Meridian situated in the County of Clay and State of Illinois, and that a summons has been issued out of said court against you, returnable at the November Term, A.D. 1928, of said court, at the court house in Louisville, in Clay county, Illinois.

Now, unless you, the said nonresident defendants shall personally be and appear before said County court of Clay county, on the first day of a term thereof, to be holden at Louisville, in the said county, on the First Monday of November 1928, and plead, answer, or demur to said complaint's petition filed therein, the same and the matters and things therein charged and stated will be taken as confessed, and a decree entered against you according to the prayers of the said bill.

Lousiville, Illinois, September 11, 1928.

Emery E. Calhoon, Complainant's Solicitor"

Further,I noted the Reynold's family and they connect, I think to, Hazel P. Bridgewater, 106 NE 50TH Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97213, as follows:

Anyway, I am wondering if you would send me a copy of your pedigree. I hope to meet with you, when I travel to Des Moines, to meet with my Aunt, Esther Simpson Rash, Pual's wife. I am not certain, if travel will be allowed, due to a February 3rd, 1995, heart attack, due to complications from-on-set diabetes. The only other relative we know about was my great-uncle, Gilbert L. Howard, who died at age 44. He was married to Fanny Hays, of Southeastern Nebraska, mainly around Tobias or Tecumseh.

TOY

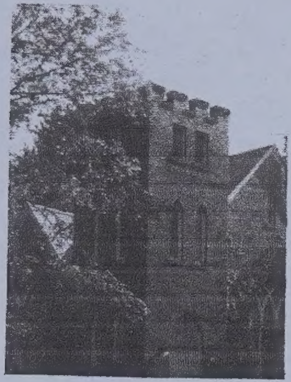
ONE HUNDRED YEARS of METHODISM in WASHBURN, ILLINOIS



CENTENNIAL WEEK

September 2 through September 9, 1956

WASHBURN METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. D. J. Powell, Pastor

TOY

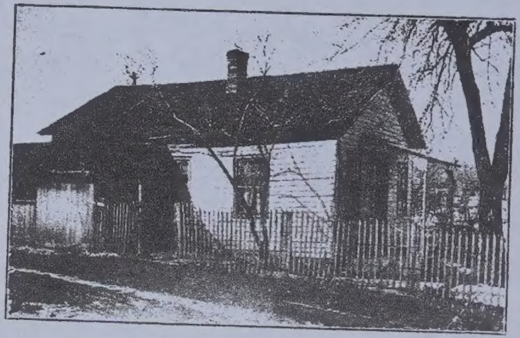
ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF METHODISM in WASHBURN, ILLINOIS

The earliest marks of the Methodists in the community of Washburn were made by the circuit riders several years before there was any organization. The earliest date of which we have any record is the baptism of Lucinda, daughter of James and Mary Harris, dated 1843. From 1843 to 1856 there is no definite record, save here and there a recorded marriage or a baptism. These bear the signatures of a variety of Methodist preachers who were without doubt "circuit riders" upon their irregular visits.

We leave the realm of uncertainty with the laying out of the town in 1856. This was for the most part within the borders of Marshall County. Out on what is now the west side of Washburn was the home of James Toy and across the street to the south was the Wagon Shop, which was always referred to as "The Toy Wagon Shop." In this "Wagon Shop" early in the year 1856, a group of devout men and women met and humbly knelt in prayer as they banded themselves into a "Methodist Class", elected a "Class Leader" and became a part of the world-wide Methodist Episcopal Church. The records show that the class had but six members. There may have been more but the records do not verify this.

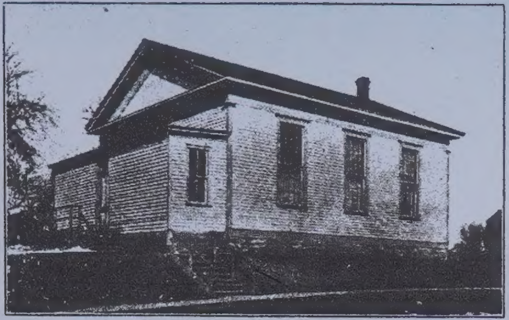
A Rev. Morse of the Metamora circuit was asked to preach to the "Class". He accepted the invitation and continued to hold regular services for a number of months, preaching at evening during the winter, and in the afternoon in the summer. He was followed by a regular appointed preacher of the "Marshall Circuit" who was advised by the bishop to include "Washburn" in his list of regular preaching appointments. This was in the fall of 1856 and thus begins a continuous record of appointments to this Washburn Church.

It was not until 1863 that Washburn was set apart as a station. This was the year the first church building was erected at the northeast corner of Main and Woodford streets. This was a rather plain structure 30 feet by 48 feet, but it did have a steeple, which was a source of pride to those who made the building possible. The cost of this first Church was $2,000.00.



JAMES TOY WAGON SHOP

WASBURN, IL



FIRST M. E. CHURCH 1863

During the time from organization until the first meeting-house was built, the congregation met where ever it was convenient, sometimes in homes of the members, often in the schoolhouse, back to the old wagon shop, and once in awhile in the Baptist church.

When Rev. J. E. Connor came to the Washburn pastorate, he found a new church building under construction at the spot where the present Church stands. On the 28th of December, 1890, the second building was dedicated by the Presiding Elder, Rev. T. W. McVety, assisted by the pastor and former pastors. The new building and the new location made for a great deal of interest and the years 1890 – 1894 saw many confessions of faith and accessions to the Church. This building cost $5,000.00, but was not a great financial burden.

May we digress here to say that with the organization of the Marshall Circuit, of which Washburn was a part, in 1856 the first session of the Central Illinois Conference was held and the charge was within the bounds of the Washington District. After a time this Conference was organized into four districts: Rock Island, Peoria, Kankakee, and Pontiac. With the unification with the Illinois Conference in 1927, the old district lines were dissolved and the larger Conference was organized into seven districts, much larger in area than any of the old ones. Washburn was included in the area of the Peoria District.

Many changes in the organized Methodist Church have taken place through the years. We will but mention that in 1939, delegates from the three leading branches met in Kansas City, and The Methodist Episcopal; The Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and The Methodist Protestant Church; became one body; The Methodist Church.

It seems proper to mention a few of the names which have been often upon the records of the activities of this fellowship. Some of these which are remembered by many of the Washburn people are: Barnes, Boys, Combes, Hall, Hoover, Iliff, Owen, Perry and Shugart.

On December 13, 1905 this second church building caught fire and burned to the ground. The flames had hardly died out when a trustees meeting was called at which definite steps were taken to build another church. A building committee was appointed and plans for the structure were soon under way. F. A. Fhringer was the superintendent of construction and no time was lost in getting ready for use, this present brick edifice at a cost of $9,135.00. The Methodists worshipped in the town hall until the basement was usable for services. This third and present building was dedicated, December 9, 1906. When we think of the size of this undertaking, and the heroism with which minister and people met and solved this problem, we realize why there was so much festivity associated with its dedication.

In the year 1911, the trustees of the Bell Plain Methodist Episcopal Church were authorized to sell the church and parsonage, and it was soon done. The net proceeds were $874.76 and this was used to improve the parsonage at Washburn, which was greatly needed. The pipe organ was bought and installed the same year at a cost of $650.00 and then the property of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Washburn was valued at $14,000.00. The bell in the tower now, was brought from the abandoned Pattonsburg Methodist Church.

Across the years the Washburn Church has had good years and poor years. The old records show that in 1874, the minister's salary was $900.00, but there are records of other years after this when the salary was much lower. Several men who are now successful ministers owe some of the credit to the Washburn Congregation that gave them a start as student ministers. A number of older men who were in retired relation, have served the charge with distinction through the years.

During the years 1943–46 under the ministry of Rev. Paul Higgins, the chimes were placed in the church tower as a project of the young people of the Church; the new altar furniture was installed and the new carpet laid and a number of other improvements to the entire plant. During the ministry of Rev. S. M. Berney, plans were begun for the new heating plant and remodeling of the basement of the church. This was completed during the ministry of Rev. Ralph Fitch, also new shingles on the parsonage, new rest rooms in the church and redecoration of the basement. The cost of these various capital improvements was a considerable amount for this small congregation, but the will to do seemed to make the job relative easy.

The Annual Conference of 1953 left the Washburn Charge without a minister. This is but the second time in all the years that "To Be Supplied" was written after the name of Washburn. For three months this time, there was no regularly appointed pastor, but the people took advantage of the vacancy at the parsonage to do some much needed repairs there. During the summer and early fall, complete replastering was done, a new furnace installed, and a new gas-range was placed in the kitchen. Now Washburn has a good eight-room parsonage, very comfortable and convenient.

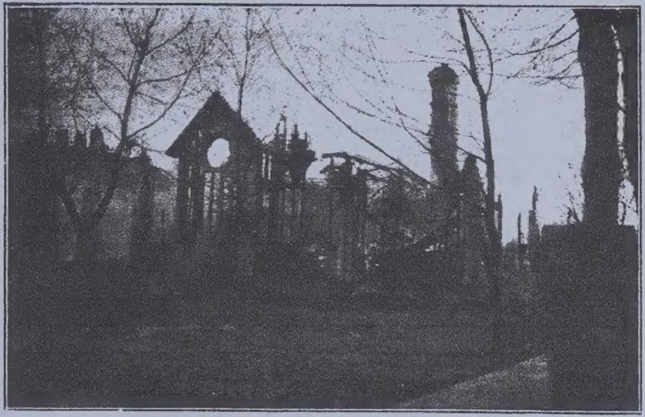
In the summer of 1954, a new drainage system was put in, which has kept the water out of the basements of the church and parsonage. And now during the year 1956, our centennial year we see the church interior redecorated and the lighting system renewed. We now have a church of which our small congregation can justly feel quite proud. The pews are refinished and the floors revarnished and these all add to the appearance. This means that a great number have sacrificed either in work or money in order to achieve the fine surroundings we see as we observe our centennial year.



SECOND CHURCH IN FLAMES

WASBURN FL

CHURCH – 1956

As we rejoice in the achievement of these physical improvements, perhaps we ought to remind ourselves that a building and its furnishings, however beautiful and adequate, do not make a church. In the finest sense, the church is a fellowship of devout people who have banded themselves together in loyalty to a common faith; people who have the Spirit of Christ and try to follow Him in love, kindness and thoughtfulness for all others. As we, in a measure, relive the century through which we have come, we are reminded that this is but a hollow show, unless we rededicate ourselves to Him in whose honor we have done all this, and begin the new century, determined to give up bickering, jealousies and evil-speaking. The spirit of those who have made today's goodly heritage possible, should possess us now as we dedicate ourselves to posterity and to the future in the Glorious hope that His Kingdom shall come and that His will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. To this end we pledge ourselves anew to His way, though it may mean for many of us, sacrifice, and work, and the giving of our possessions.

WASHBURN INDUSTRIES 81 YEARS AGO

The younger generation may not have learned that many years ago Washburn numbered among her industries a tile and a brick factory. The former was owned and operated by Robert C. McCulloch on the north side of the county line just east of the Alton railroad track, as late as 1890. The brick factory was owned by Sam Whitmer on the farm which later became the Lev. McFarlin property and lately was purchased by Ed. Owen.

So much for the business enterprises. In the carefully kept ledger of Mr. McCulloch, who was the father of our Mrs. J. E. Barnes and Miss Laura McCulloch, is found a brief description of "Washburn in 1856," written by Mr. McCulloch. It was not written in that year, the date of its writing is not stated, but it is his recollertion of the town as it was five years after it was laid out by one Hiram Echols, in 1851.

The description follows, with the addition of explanatory notes by the editor in parenthesis:

Mr. McCulloch begins his description on the north side of the county line and west of the mile road running north past the grade school.

1st—The Hiram Echols property, where Russell Vaughn now lives. (Robert Ross now owns this property.)

2nd.—The school house a little east of the new brick school. (The "new brick school built in 1876 has been replaced by the grade school building.)

3rd—A one story small house on the lot bought lately by the school board was occupied by Tilton Howard as a grocery store.

4th.—A small one story building on the northeast corner of the lot occupied by Mrs. Brown, used then as a general store by Cushings and Jenkins.

5th—The house now occupied by Mr. Shruder (Schroeder), then Dr. Thomas residence. (Later became the home of Johnathan Haines, now belongs to Hondice Schroeder.

6th.—The Iunker house occupied by D. P. Smith.

7th—A small log shanty on the ground now occupied by John Immel, was occupied by Burgoin Smith, the father of Addy Smith, known by some. (Now occupied by Mrs. Ida Montgomery.)

8th—The old shop of the Iunker heirs was then occupied by one Bixby.

9th.—The old Baptist Church. (Built in 1855-6).

10th.—The house now occupied by James Toy as a wagon shop in which the Methodist church of Washburn was organized. (1857).

12th—The widow Weber house, then occupied by Elder Merritt of the Baptist church. (Now the Allen Neff home).

Outside the Village

House on the ground now occupied by R. C. McCulloch, then occupied by Tilton Howard. The house on the Dr. Thomas farm was then occupied by Alexander Carrithers, father of the school janitor. (John Carrithers was the janitor referred to by Mr. McCulloch. The farm is now occupied by Henry Walker. The first property mentioned now belongs to Gilbert Combes.)

West of the Baptist church, now the Shafer farm, was owned and occupied by Stephen Sweet.

South of the Baptist church, now the Oscar Shugart home, was occupied by Robert Sweet and family. Three of the girls married three Howard boys and two of the Sweet boys afterward married Toys.

East of the Sweet farm, P. Jenkins lived where Mr. Watt now lives. Lancing Howard lived in what is now the Held home. (Presdmably the house recently moved to give place for the H. M. Tjaden home). p

Isaac Smith lihed in what is now the John Black home, (now the property Herman Tjaden). Baird Sweet lived in what is nbw the Frank Ireland home, (now owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jury.)

Note: A picture taken of a model of the town as it appeared in 1856 may be seen at this office.

On the 28th of December, 1890, the second building was dedicated by the Presiding Elder, Rev. T. W. McVety, assisted by the pastor and former pastors. The new building and the new location made for a great deal of interest and the years 1890 – 1894 saw many confessions of faith and accessions to the Church. This building cost $5,000.00, but was not a great financial burden.

May we digress here to say that with the organization of the Marshall Circuit, of which Washburn was a part, in 1856 the first session of the Central Illinois Conference was held and the charge was within the bounds of the Washington District. After a time this Conference was organized into four districts: Rock Island, Peoria, Kankakee, and Pontiac. With the unification with the Illinois Conference in 1927, the old district lines were dissolved and the larger Conference was organized into seven districts, much larger in area than any of the old ones. Washburn was included in the area of the Peoria District.

Many changes in the organized Methodist Church have taken place through the years. We will but mention that in 1939, delegates from the three leading branches met in Kansas City, and The Methodist Episcopal; The Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and The Methodist Protestant Church; became one body; The Methodist Church.

WASHBURN INDUSTRIES 81 YEARS AGO (from Vol. XLVII-- newspaper unknown)

The younger generation may not have learned that many years ago Washburn numbered among her industries a tile and a brick factory. The former was owned and operated by Robert C. MC CULLOCH on the north side of the county line just east of the Alton railroad track, as late as 1890. The brick factory was owned by Sam WHITMER on the farm which later become the Lev. MC FARLIN property and lately was purchased by Ed. OWEN.

So much for the business enterprises. In the carefully kept ledger of Mr. MC CULLOCH, who was the father of our Mrs. J. E. BARNES and Miss Laura MC CULLOCH, is found a brief description of "Washburn in 1856," written by Mr. MC CULLOCH. It was not written in that year, the date of its writing is not stated, but it is his recollection of the town as it was five years after it was laid out by one Hiram ECHOLS, in 1851.

The descritpion follows, with the addition of explanatory notes by the editor in parenthnesis:

Mr. MC CULLOUGH begins his description on the north side of the county line and west of the mile road running north past the grade school.

1st -- The Hiram ECHOLS property, where Russell VAUGHN now lives. (Robert ROSS now owns this property.)

2nd -- The school house a little east of the new brick school. (The new brick school built in 1876 has been replaced by the grade school building.)

3rd -- A one story small house on the lot bought lately by the schoolboard was occupied by Tilton HOWARD as a grocery store.

4th -- A small one story building on the northeast corner of the lot occupied by Mrs. BROWN used then as a general store by CUSHINGS and JENKINS.

5th -- The house now occupied by Mr. SHRUDDER (SCHROEDER), then Dr. THOMAS residence. (Late became the home of Johnathan HAINES, now belongs to Hondice SCHROEDER.

6th -- The IUNKER house occupied by D. P. SMITH.

7th -- A small log shanty on the ground now occupied by John IMMEL was occupied by Burgoin SMITH, the father of Addy SMITH, known by some. (Now occupied by Mrs. Ida MONTGOMERY.)

8TH -- The old shop of the IUNKER heirs waas then occupied by one BIXBY.

9th -- The old Baptist Church. (Built in 1855-56).

10th-- The house now occupied by James TOY as a wagon shop in which the Methodist Church of Washburn was organized. (1867).

12th-- The widow WEBER house, then occupied by Elder MERRITT of the Baptist Church. (Now the Allen NEFF home).

OUTSIDE THE VILLAGE

House on the ground now occupied by R. C. MC CULLOCH, then occupied by Tilton HOWARD. The house on the Dr. THOMAS farm was then occupied by Alexander CARRITHERS, father of the school janitor. (John CARRITHERS was the janitor referred to by Mr. MC CULLOCH. The farm is now occupied by Henry WALKER. The first property mentioned now belongs to Gilbert COMBES.)

West of the Baptist Church, now the SHAFER farm, was owned and occupied by Stephen SWEET.

South of the Baptist Church, now the Oscar STURGART homne, was occupied by Robert SWEET and family. Three of the girls married three HOWARD boys and two of the SWEET boys afterward married TOYS.

East of the SWEET farm, P. JENKINS lived where Mr. WATT now lives. Lancing HOWARD lived in what is now the HELD home. (Presumably the house recently moved to give place for the H. M. TJADEN home).

Issac SMITH lived in what is now the John BLACK home, (now the property of Herman TJADEN). Baird SWEET lived in what is now the Frank IRELAND home, (now owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. JURY.)

Note: A picture taken of a model of the town as it appeared in 1856 may be seen at this office.

WASHBURN CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Salem Church, one of the forerunners of the Washburn Christian Church, was organized on June 12, 1835, in the home of Nathan and Elizabeth Owen at the foot of the hill below Salem Cemetery. The covenant they formed was signed by Nathan and Elizabeth Owen; Elder Henry D. Palmer and Patsy Palmer, his wife; Isaac Black; William Maxwell and wife; James Ledgerwood and Mary R. Ledgerwood; Robert Bennington and wife; Robert, Daniel, and Thomas Owen; Lynn Hendricks; Mordecai Bane and wife; Elizabeth Boon; W. P. Carrithers and wife, and many others. The remnants of this congregation formed a nucleus for the Washburn Christian Church. Among them were "Old Sister Carrithers"; James Ledgerwood and wife; "Sister Clell Harper" (daughter of Nathan Owen); Pleasant Ireland and his wife, Matilda; James Owen and wife; Simeon Linn, wife and daughter. Others of the 30 charter members came from a group that had worshipped in the Vernon School east of Washburn: Sister Burnham; Garrett Worth; James West and wife; "Aunt Betsy" Black; Thos. Pickerell and wife; Elias Fisher and wife. The Washburn Christian Church organized in late June, 1864, following a successful "protracted meeting" held by David Sharples, an evangelist sponsored by Illinois Disciples of Christ, who used the Baptist Church on Main Street for these meetings. The Baptist church continued to be the meeting place for this congregation until they bought a lot and began to build their own church in 1867, which was completed and dedicated in Feb., 1868. Moved to its present site in 1890, it was improved and rededicated. A new parsonage was built in 1909. A new educational plant and combined chapel and church parlor were built and dedicated in 1961. In October. 1964, the church celebrated its first 100 years of service. Men who have served Washburn Christian Church as regularly called ministers have been: John C. McCune, 1864; Charles Rowe alternated on a half-time basis with John C. McCune, 1870; (Minonk) David Sharples, July 1, 1871; Hugh B. Rice, summer of 1872; John D. Henry, autumn of 1873; David Sharples, Jan. 1, 1875; Theodore Brooks, fall of 1876; Ap Cobb, May 1, 1879; J. A. Brennenstuhl, May 1, 1880-April 1, 1882; R. E. Dunlap, Sept. 1, 1882-Sept. 1, 1886; Wm. H. Hayden, Oct., 1886-June, 1888 (went from here as a missionary to Jamaica); T. A. Boyer, July-Aug., 1888 (supply); W. A. Humphrey, Sept. 1, 1888-1894; S. S. Lappin, Sept. 1, 1894-1896; I. H. Fuller, Sept. 2, 1896-June 1, 1898; J. W. Kilborn, July 24, 1898-Dec. 31, 1904; H. H. Jenner, Jan. 1, 1904-Nov. 10, 1906; Rochester Irwin, Jan. 1, 1907-Dec. 31, 1908; Rome G. WASHBURN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Sometime around 1856 the Methodist group of Washburn became a regular preaching point of the Washington District. The worship services had been conducted in the Toy Wagon Shop (run by Mr. Toy, who built farm wagons), located across from the Baptist Cemetery at the northwest corner of Main and Church Streets; at the local school-house; or in the Baptist Church. The first church built by this congregation was at the corner of Woodford and Main Streets, was erected in 1863, later became a school-house and then a residence. The congregation built a new church in 1890, on Jefferson Street. This church burned in 1903 and the present church was built on the same site. The parsonage, built in 1894, was remodelled in 1911 and has been improved at times since then. In 1939 when three branches of Methodism united, the women's organizations became one, the present women's Society for Christian Service. A yoke-field ministry with Lowpoint Evangelical United Brethren Church began in Nov., 1964.

Early names in this congregation are: Barnes, Boys, Combes, Hall, Hoover, Hollenbeck, Iliff, Owen, Perry, and Shugart.

Some ministers who have served this congregation: 1856-57, John Grundy; 1857-59, A. C. Price; 1859-60, W. A. Prepon, H. M. Connell, 1860-61, B. P. Wheat; 1861-62, W. J. Stubbles; 1862-64, G. M. Irwin; 1864-65, J. W. Haney; 1865-67, Joseph Hart; 1867-68, A. K. Tullis; 1868-69, Thomas Cotton; 1869-70, A. K. Tullis, M. C. Eignus; 1870-73, G. P. Snedake, 1873-74, W. A. Cumming; 1874-75, E. B. WASHBURN UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Early in the history of Presbyterianism the church divided into several organizations: the Old School, New School, Reformed, Associate Reformed, Cumberland Presbyterian, and Covenanters. They all accepted and recognized the Westminster Confession of Faith as their standard, but owing to a slight difference of interpretation they divided into these different bodies.

In 1853, the Associate Reformed (later United Presbyterian) church society organized with Rev. McClanahan, the first Presbyterian minister in Cazenovia Township as their pastor. They used an old log school house which was standing west of the Lowpoint Methodist Episcopal Church and west of the present Lowpoint Cemetery as a place of worship. Just before and during the Civil War a number of families moved into the community, which added to the church membership. On November 3, 1854 a group of people formally organized a church called the Associate Reformed Church of Lowpoint, Illinois.

In 1858, through action of their General Assembly, the Associate Reformed and Reformed churches united under the name of United Presbyterian, and the congregation here became the United Presbyterian Church of Lowpoint. On their organization, the church called Rev. P. H. Drennen as pastor. Among the charter members were: James Piper and wife; J. M. McCulloch and wife; Robert McCulloch and wife; Charles F. McCulloch; James Wright and wife; George Johnson and wife; Archibald Holferty and wife; William Drennen and wife; Samuel Beard and wife; Mrs. Sunderland and two daughters; John M. Pinkerton and wife; John Bayne and wife; William Carson and wife; Hugh, Joseph C., Alexander, Batey, Elizabeth, and Belle Carson; S. D. Wilson and wife; Jared Irwin and wife and two daughters, Mary Jane and Magdalene, who later became respectively Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Weede.

In 1859, on land a mile east of Lowpoint and slightly north, on the east side of the road, eighty members built a brick church 40x50 feet, for $3,000.00. This church was dedicated in December, 1859, with Dr. Wallace, President of Monmouth College, delivering the dedication sermon.

After the Civil War, the congregation gradually shifted to the north in the neighborhood of Washburn and decided as a matter of convenience to sell the old church and build in Washburn, on lots one and two, Block 3, Black's

MARCH 1934

Mrs. C. L. Wooley returned last week from Momence, Ills., where she had been for several days preceding the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet, which occurred on March 16th. Funeral services were held at Momence on March 19th, with interment at Mrs. Sweet's former home at Chenoa, Ills. The deceased was 95 years old in January and had made her home for the past fifteen years with her daughter, Mrs. Wooley, in West Coloma. Last July she went to Momence to visit her son, Edgar Sweet, and passed away there. C. L. Wooley, Roscoe Wooley, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wooley attended the funeral. Roscoe and Howard Wooley and Merrill Sweet of Detroit, well known in Coloma, were among the grandsons who acted as casket bearers.

OBITUARIES

30 December 1870-KERN-Martha Jane, wife of Rev. J. KERN of Central Illinois Conference, died in Chebanse, Illinois 30 December. She was born in (Montgomery) Pennslvania 17 October 1837. 21 years of her life were devoted to the service of the Master; she was converted at the early age of 12, and she was married 23 July 1863. She left 4 helpless children. Her death was a glorious vindication of the power of saving grace. She spoke of her death with the most perfect resignation and composure. She spoke to her husband about the little ones, requesting him, if possible, to keep them together. She then spoke of the happy life that they had lived together in the ministry, but said with a heavenly radiance on her countenance, "That a happier and far more glorious one awaited them in the mansions of the Lord." She then kissed the children, and told them "that their Mother was about to die and leave them, but if they would live right, obeying their father and loving God, they would come to Heaven sometime and meet their Mother, and be with Jesus and the angels." She then requested all present to meet her in Heaven and offered up an earnest prayer to this end, and for all her friends, especially those who were unconverted. By her request, others joined her in prayer to which she responded heartily. Having thus committed all into the hands of God after a short struggle with the "last enemy" she calmly and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. She was an affectionate wife, a devoted mother, and faithful friend. She won the esteem and respect of all. Modest and retiring in her ways, her social and religious life shone most brightly in the home circle and among her more intimate friends; she loved the sanctuary, and was always "glad when they said unto her, let us go into the house of the Lord." Lovely in life and triumphant in death, her glorified spirit has passed through the gates into the Holy City.

PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Mary D. TALLMAN - Former Chenoa Citizen - Crusader - Died in Milwaukee - Sketch of Life

by A. R. COPELAND

Mrs. Mary D. TALLMAN died at the residence of sons Frank and Lafayette TALLMAN, 814 Wells street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin at 10 a.m. Sunday, 7 February 1909, aged 82 years.

Mary D. TOY was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 9 February 1827. She was married to Lafayette TALLMAN 21 July 1851 at New Holland, Ohio. Immediately after their marriage, they went to Comanche, Iowa to reside, living there until 1865 when they went to Dixon, Illinois and from there to Beardstown, Illinois coming to Chenoa, Illinois in 1873, where they resided 10 years. In 1883 they moved to Chicago and then to Detroit, Michigan in 1893.

Mr. TALLMAN died in Detroit 20 November 1898. After his death, she came back to Chicago to live with her sons. IN 1903 she came to Milwaukee to live with her sons, Frank and Lafayette. Four sons were born to them, viz.: Nelson, Frank, Lafayette and Harry.

Mrs. TALLMAN was an active and zealous Christian and it will be remembered of her, that during her residence in Chenoa, she was a great worker in the M. E. church and also very active and zealous in the cause of temperance. She was ________ of that noble band of crusaders who ______ prayer meetings in the saloons of Chenoa.

The near relatives who survive her are sons Nelson of Chicago, Frank and Lafayette of Milwaukee and 1 sister, Mrs. Anna MILLARD of Low Moore, Iowa; half-sisters Mrs. Lydia ABBOTT, Chenoa; Mrs. Ella WILSON, Chicago; Mrs. Elizabeth SWEET, Momence, Illinois; Mrs. B. D. HOWARD, Cherryvale, Kansas; Mrs. Anna SWEET, DeRidder, Louisiana; half-brothers: Thomas, Milton and Nelson TOY, Cherryvale.

The funeral was held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Elder HYDE of the M. E. church conducting the services, which were solemn and appropriate. Her 3 sons and 1 other friend were the pallbearers. Mr. and Mrs. WILSON of Chicago were the only other relatives present. The floral offerings at the funeral were fine.

PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND - continued:

Owing to physical infirmities, she was not able to attend church much during her residence in Milwaukee and for the last 2 years she could not go at all.

Your correspondent called upon them Saturday afternoon, the day before she died, and while talking to Frank, she came into the room with tottering steps, saying she recognized my voice, and came in to see me. We talked about Chenoa and the people she knew, some of whom are far away. Her mind was very active and her memory good.

Speaking of her ripe old age, she said she could see to read, write and sew, and she expressed the hope that she might not live to be a burden and care upon anyone. Her son Frank said, "Don´t cross any bridges, mother, until you come to them."

I left about 5 p.m. She said she hoped I would come again soon. We little thought that she would pass away so soon. Sunday morning they called her. She sat up in bed to arise but fell back unable to do so. Medical aid was summoned, but it was of no avail. She passed peacefully away, apparently unconscious to that heavenly country from which no one returns, where she is reaping her reward of a well spent life, in the mansions above where neither sorrow nor death can enter.

In Memory of James D. TOY

James D. TOY, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. TOY, was born at Washburn, Illinois 7 June 1876. Died at Lake Charles, ~~[Illinoi~~s] 2 May 1923; aged 46 years, 10 months and 25 days. — JAMES MILTON TOY

When the family removed from Washburn to Cherryvale, Kansas in 1882, James was 6 years old. It was here that he received all his preliminary education, being graduated from the Cherryvale HIgh School in 1896. While still a boy he became a member of the Presbyterian church at this place and was an earnest and dependable worker in the activities of the church. Ambitious of a broader education he entered Washburn College at Topeka at the completion of his high school course and was graduated with the A. B. degree in 1900. Having chosen medicine as his profession he entered Rush Medical College, Chicago and received his degree of M. D. in 1905. Returning to Cherryvale he practiced his profession there until 1909, when he was made company physician to the Long-Bell LUmber Company with headquarters at DeRidder, Louisiana. He filled this position with an unusual degree of honor and skill and was still on the company's staff with added recognition when an untimely death claim him.

While yet a student in Rush in 1901, he was married to Miss Lottie MC CORMICK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. MC CORMICK of this city. With her and 2 daughters, Florence and Blanche and 1 son, Harold, who are left to mourn his loss. Of his immediate family, there survive him his mother, Mrs. J. M TOY of this city, a sister, Mrs. O. M. DAVIS of Parsons; and 2 brothers, Ross C. TOY of Cherryvale, and Roy F. TOY of Newton. Another sister, Myrtle preceded him to the great beyond in 1909 and his father in 1915.

Dr. TOY was a man of the highest personal integrity. He was honorable in every relationship of life, kind to . . . [balance of clipping missing.]

TOY FUNERAL SUNDAY

Cherryvale Woman Laid to Rest in Fairview Cemetery

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella E. TOY, widow of the late Daniel T. TOY, a Civil war veteran, who died New Year´s day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert J. HUDDLESON, 311 East Eighth street, Coffeyville, were held at 3 o´clock here Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends, many who had known Mrs. TOY since she came to Kansas 47 years ago. In the assemblage was a large representation of the Women´s Relief corps, of which organization Mrs. TOY was a member. A beautiful array of flowers bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The ladies having charge of the flowers were Mrs. Frank WALTERCHILD, Mrs. Gladys KLINE, Mrs. James MC CUE, Mrs. Cora ANNON, Miss Bertha HANKEN, Mrs. Rex ISAACS, and Mrs. Cecil SHIVES, all of Coffeyville; Mrs. Rex WEISER, Mrs. Homer J. HENDRICKS, Mrs. J. T. LEWIS, Mrs. j. A. THORNTON and Mrs. Emmett VEEDER, all of this city.

A vocal solo, "No Night There," with Miss Mildred BENHAM at the piano, was sung beautifully by Miss Frances MC SWEENEY. A ladies quartet composed of Mrs. Earl GREENSTREET, Mrs. Virgie COX, Mrs. W. H. HAMMA and Mrs. J. B. FAIN, with Miss BENHAM, accompanist, sang the hymn, "Abide With Me." Two funeral dirges, "At Thy Feet" (GREG), and "Traumerei" (SCHUMANN) were played by Miss BENHAM.

The Rev. Joseph D. BOYD, minister of the Coffeyville First Christian Church, gave a touching and impressive service, stressing Psalm 23. He was assisted in the services by the Rev. Robert W. SHAW, pastor of the Cherryvale First Baptist Church, who offered prayer.

Immediately following the services, the funeral cortege wended its way to Fairview cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her husband, Daniel T. TOY, who preceded her in death 1 June 1926.

The pallbearers were: J. A. THORNTON, J. T. LEWIS, Lou E. DODDS, W. M. MC KEEHAN, George NORRIS and F. E. SHUMARD.

Ella E. TOY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph HAWKS, was born 6 April 1856 at Bloomington, Illinois. She was 75 years, 3 months and 25 days old when she died. Forty-seven years ago Mrs. TOY came to Cherryvale with her husband and since that time had made her home here. She lived at 506 Fourth Street, and was taken to Coffeyville about 10 days ago following a paralytic stroke, to be near her daughter, Mrs. HUDDLESON.

Mrs. TOY was beloved for her kindness, her interest in the welfare of others and her devotion to members of her family. Her happy outlook on life was shared by her many friends in a beneficial way, and her cheerfulness was reflected in all who enjoyed her. Her smiling countenance will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by 2 daughters, Mrs. J. A. CUNNINGHAM of Wellington, and Mrs. Robert J. HUDDLESON, Coffeyville; and 2 sons, Thomas D. TOY of Cherryvale and E. H. TOY of Kansas City. One sister, Mrs. Ida OHMOT of Bloomington, Illinois and 3 grandchildren, Miss Elizabeth and Toy CUNNINGHAM of Wellington, and Betty HUDDLESON of Coffeyville, also survive. One sister, Mrs. Mary MC COLM died 2 months ago at Bloomington.

Mrs. TOY was a charter member of the Cherryvale First Christian church, a member of the Women´s Relief corps of Cherryvale HACKLEMAN post and of the Security benefit association.

Internment in charge of the MC DANIEL Funeral service, was in Fairview cemetery.

Among the relatives and friends here to attend Mrs. TOY´S funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. CUNNINGHAM and daughter, Elizabeth and son Toy of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. HUDDLESON and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest NEILL, Mr. and Mrs. Ben WHITTINGTON, Mrs. Adeline MEHL and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. John HARTMAN, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. PERRY, Mr. and Mrs. Eli WAREHAM, Mrs. Charles RAY, Mr. and Mrs. STAYTON, Bussman HENRY, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil SHIVES, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. POOL, all of Coffeyville and E. H. TOY of Kansas City.

Mrs. Eckard Toy.
Tillamook, Ore.

Dear Friend - I was very happy to get your letter. I was very fond of the Toy family. I don't suppose Eckard remembers me very well, he being Laura and Claire's "little brother" when the girls were active with my sisters and me in Cherryvale, Kas., B. Y. P. U. Laura and Ralph were married the same year I was married. When Laura and Ralph were married the older generation was about gone. I understand that Nelson Toy was the youngest son of a big family of 12 children. I believe I told you about the old folks always talking about the Howards, the Sweets and Toys, each family having 12 children and all ~~living~~ in Chenoa. In checking dates and ages the Toys were much younger as my grandmother, Samira Sweet, was 26 years older than her brother Solon who married Elizabeth Toy.

I am sending a rundown on the Sweet ancestors down to Peleg Sweet and Abigail Bardeen. Then I send their twelve children and to whom they were married, etc. I am hoping I have been correct in copying them as nowadays my typing ability is not very good and my eyes do not track well.

I did not copy any of the Howard data as I believe Brad Howard's marriage to Rebecca Toy the only one (until, of course Ralph and Laura.) (was a sister of Nelson / sister of Grandpa Toy)

I am sending a mimeographed copy of an article by Mrs. E. D. Sweet, wife of Edgar Delos Sweet, son of Solon Sweet and Elizabeth Toy. (I remember Aunt Elizabeth but she was a widow when I saw her.)

I am afraid I don't have anything much of help for genealogy purposes for the Joys.

Much of the material I have has been furnished me by Mrs. Trella Hall, box 227, Larned, Kas., a great-granddaughter of a brother of my grandfather Howard but she has been a close cousin to me in the way of family history. She has gone into research in a big way. (She is a D.A.R. - I never bothered about it.)

Your letter sounds like you have a very interesting family.

I will close and hope I have had something to interest you. (A lady just phoned she was coming by to take my mail to box for which I am very thankful.

Heaps of love,
Mabel (Howard) Selby.

July 3, 1808, Peleg Sweet was married to Abigail Bardeen. Two years after their marriage - their eldest daughter and child, La Myra, was born in Canovia, N. Y.

In 1812 Peleg spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West. In February, 1812, his second daughter, Mary, was born in Burlington, N. Y., and sometime that year he and his family started for Ohio.

From the dates of his stay in Ohio and when he landed in Illinois, the other two daughters; Tempie and Elizabeth must have been born in Ohio - but near what town the descendants of these two daughters don't seem to know.

By the dates of the births of these two girls they must have been born sometime somewhere from the time they left New York until they landed in Illinois, for we find by the records that Isaac was the first child of Peleg and Abigail (Bardeen) Sweet to be born in Illinois.

Dr. John Taylor contributed a very interesting story about the scar o. Grandmother Sweet's face that was told to him by his Mother. — As it fits in the life history so well at this place I will relate it as he wrote it to me. "Peleg and wife and family were on their way to Illinois from Ohio. The roads were awful as new roads through timber generally were. Grandmother Sweet was sitting on the driver's seat holding baby Elizabeth when the front wheel either ran over a stump or dropped into a deep rut.

Whichever it was, it threw her out and she fell with her head between the front wheel and the hind wheel, and before Grandfather could stop the team the hind wheel had run up on her head. As the wagon was heavily loaded he did not dare to drive on over her head, so he seized the hub or spokes of the hind wheel and lifted the wagon and pushed her head away with his foot and then let the wheel down.

He thought at first she was dead, but on examination found she was not, though badly hurt. He washed the wound as well as he could, sewing up the lacerated parts with a common sewing needle and black linen thread. Then putting her on a blanket she was carried to a cabin not far away, and there they all stayed until Grandmother was able to travel again. Elizabeth was so bundled up that she was not dangerously hurt by the fall."

Just where the accident occurred is not known for sure but Dr. Taylor states he thought it was somewhere near Hamilton, Ohio. Grandfather must have been a strong man to lift such a load and get her head out of the way all alone.

He belonged to the Masonic Order, and the brothers about there hearing of his troubles helped him all they could, not only with food but with money which was a scarce article in those good old days. Dr. Taylor also stated his mother told him Grandfather returned the money in time, but it took years to pay it all back. That he did, tells me more than anything that he was a man.

There is a picture of Grandmother Sweet in the Dunham family that shows the scar very plainly that was caused by the accident.

Some time after this they journeyed on to Illinois, it took three months to make the trip.

In the year 1817 Peleg and family landed in Illinois. This was the year Illinois became a state and the port of entry from the East was Shawneetown, Ill.

In some old papers we found a slip of paper and on this paper was written "Peleg Sweet & Abigail his wife came down the Ohio river and landed at Shawneetown, October, 1817."

Here they suffered many hardships but were sturdy pioneers through it all. Their shelter was a log hut, floorless and doorless. Their food was hominy and wild game.

In a clipping written up about some of the early settlers of Illinois we read Peleg was around this locality three years and as the state became more settled and the Indians were driven farther North Peleg and some others pushed on to Diamond Grove, Morgan County, southeast of Jacksonville, Ill. and settled there.

We are told by Mrs. E. D. Sweet that Grandmother Sweet told her she became so homesick to see some of her people that Grandfather took her back to New York on a visit and while there Peleg ~~included~~ induced his father, Jonathan Sweet, and others to come to Illinois with him when he returned which they did. This was about 1822. His brother Joel came ten years later.

by Mary Toy IV Aug 18, 1968

Peleg Sweet (cont'd Ⓐ copied by Gladys M. Struck

We find in an early history of Jacksonville, Ill., written by Charles M. Eames (History Morgan & Classic Jacksonville) that in 1823 a society called the Morganian Society was formed in Morgan County for the purpose of opposing the calling of a constitutional convention which the Legislature had authorized for the well-known object of providing for a permanent establishment of slavery in the state. That society numbered 100 of which Peleg, Robert and Joseph Sweet's names were among the 100 names.

In talking with an old settler of Morgan County who knew the family, the compiler of this history was told that "Peleg was always considered a scrapper", standing up for what was considered the best for the city or country he was living in.

We are also told in a writing by Edmund Sweet (Joel Sweet's son) that Peleg was a captain of a company of Regulators who warred against thieves.

In 1843 he traded his tract of land in Woodford County and in 1846 he with his family now numbering 12 members, four sons and eight daughters, moved to Woodford County near the town on Uniontown and afterwards named Washburn.

In the early history of Woodford County we find Peleg Sweet was mentioned as an enterprising man of the old town of Washburn who came from New York and resided first in Morgan County and came to Washburn in 1846 where he took an active part in the building up of the town."

We read also in the early histories of the Baptist churches of Illinois and Woodford County that he and his brother Joel were founders of the Washburn Baptist Church. All of Peleg's family were members of this church his children and grandchildren numbering 30 members of a membership of 75.

Mrs. E. G. Sweet says "He gave the land for the Baptist church and school house to be built on at this time."

She also states that as each child married he gave all but Polly Carson and Ann Scroggen Owen (His two daughters) 80 acres for a home. Afterwards Ann Scroggin sold her farm to the brothers. Her first husband was Rev. Scroggin and he did not care to farm. (He was a Baptist, too.) Grandfather kept 80 acres for the home and that was Enock Sweet's (his youngest ~~son~~ boy) after his death. This locality was known as Stringtown. The fartherest family residing four miles from the homestead.

note:

Evidently there is a bit of mix-up in the above about the giving out of 80-acre parcels of land to Aunt Polly Carson and Aunt Ann Scroggin I wonder if it doesn't mean they received their land at a time other than at their marriage. Evidently, at least, Aunt Ann got hers.

RE: YOUR 9/17/93 LETTER ABOUT JAMES TOY

Dear Mrs. Wooley,

I apologize it's taken me so long to respond to your letter (of 9/17/93). I am related to the TOY line through my wife. Her mother has done all this research and is still quite active in genealogy. The latest information I have on that line came from her. Her address is:

Ardith (Eileen Abbott) Fretwell
7019 21st Avenue NE
Marysville, WA 98271
phone 206-659-9639

Enclosed is the family group sheet I have on James Toy. Also enclosed is a SASE. I would dearly like to have any other information you've dug up on James Toy and his progenitors. Also on his wife/wives and their progenitors.

And I promise not to delay so long in answering any other of your queries.

Sincerely yours,

Rick Bennett

TOY
SWEET

November 18, 1992

Mrs. Frances Froberg Wooley
886 La Costa Ln.
N. Ft. Myers, Florida 33917

Dear Fran:

I hope that the medical problems have eased and that you escaped the worst impact of the hurricane and related bad weather. We find that things are getting a little more complicated with Pat's mother, who is now 93 1/2, but my mother is still playing the organ for church and teaching a few piano students at nearly 87.

Have you heard anything recently from Ruth Holman and Harriet Hodge? They have done quite a bit with the Toy family history recently, and Harriet appears to have identified the parents of Lydia Eckart/Eckert/or some other spelling. John Eckart and Catherine Coffel of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, were the parents of Lydia, who is identified in the records of the Tohickon Reformed church. They also listed their children in the Tohickon Lutheran church. Since you and they have compiled most of the family names, I have decided to try to find the names and origin of the parents of Elias Toy. We have the Toy last name of his father and the Christina first name of his mother, but their national origin and other names are missing. There is little doubt that Christina was Swedish; the guesses for the father are Dutch, Finnish, or English.

Have you had any opportunity to work on the Sweet family lately?

The enclosed maps show the location of Elias Toy's property in New Jersey.

Sincerely,

Eckard

Eckard Toy

Dear Fran:

I am so very sorry to hear of the tragic accident to your grandson. You and your family have my heartfelt sympathy. I have six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren and know how precious they all are. My sincere condolences to all of you, in your sorrow.

Thank you so much for the latest Toy material you have sent. I have been to Newberry Library many times, but did not know about the book you describe. I believe that Trella Hall sent me some of that material when we corresponded a long time ago, but I didn't have it all. Of course Ruth Holman has the copy (not the original) of James Toy's family Bible, as her ancestor George Lewis Toy copied it. James Toy had 22 children, eight by the first wife and fourteen by the second, but a number of them died young. I'm enclosing both wives' lists, having already added to the bare bones; and will now proceed to add some of the death dates, etc. you have so kindly sent.

Of course you probably now realize that Martha Jane Toy was born in 1837, not 1832, undoubtedly a misreading of someone's old handwriting. I enclose a copy of the 1850 census of the family, showing Martha was age 13 that year.

I hope you enjoy the enclosed pictures. We had a reunion of my Sweet grandparents' descendants in Kansas City this past June, with sixty in attendance, out of a possible 110. The pictures were brought by my first cousin Cyra, who married Fred Sanborn, second cousin of both of us. Her children have a double Sweet-Toy line. Cyra isn't very interested in genealogy, but I think these pictures were part of what Fred's father gathered while he was working on the Sweet genealogy back in the early 1930's.

My prayers go with you.

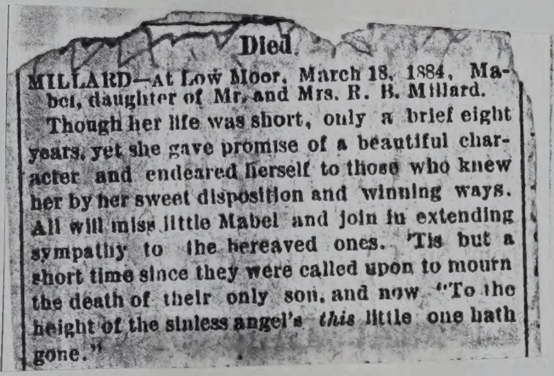
3-18-1884 MABEL MILLARD

dau. R.B. MILLARD



Died

MILLARD—At Low Moor, March 18, 1884, Mabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Millard.

Though her life was short, only a brief eight years, yet she gave promise of a beautiful character and endeared herself to those who knew her by her sweet disposition and winning ways. All will miss little Mabel and join in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones. 'Tis but a short time since they were called upon to mourn the death of their only son, and now "To the height of the sinless angel's this little one hath gone."

MARTHA JANE TOY KERN

Dec 30, 1870

KERN--Martha Jane, wife of Rev J. Kern of Central Illinois Conference, died in Chebanse Ill., Dec. 30. She was born in Montgomery county, Pa., Oct 17, 1837. Twenty-one years of her life were devoted to the service of the Master; she was converted at the early age of twelve, and she was married July 23 1866. She left four helpless children. Her death was a glorious vindication of the power of saving grace. She spoke of her death with the most perfect resignation and composure. She spoke to her husband about the little ones, requesting him, if possible to keep them together. She then spoke ofthe happy life that they had lived together in the ministry, but said with a heavenly radiance on her countenance, "That a happier and far more glorious one awaited them in the mansions of the ." She then kissed the children, and told them "that their mother was about to die and leave them, but if they would live right, obeying their father and loving God, they would come to Heaven sometime and meet their Mother, and be with Jesus and the angels" She then requested all present to meet her in Heaven, and offered up an earnest prayer to this end, and for all her friends, especially those who were unconverted. By her request others joined her in prayer, to which she responded heartily. Having thus committed all into the hands of God after a short struggle with the"last enemy" she calmly and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. She was an affectionate wife, a devoted mother, and faithful friend. She won the esteem and respect of all. Modest and retiring in her ways, her social and religious life shone most brightly in the home circle and among her more intimate friends: she loved the sanctuary, and was always "glad when they said unto her, let us go into the house of the Lord" Lovely in life and triumphant in death, her glorified spirit has passed through the gates into the Holy City

This cemetery is located about 1 mile outside of Cherryvale and is maintained by the city. There is no specific name given to it. Photos were taken by the transcriber in June of 1990 and the information on tombstone may or may not be correct:

1A Family plot of James Milton TOY and markers are listed below in the order in which they appear in photo.

2A Sarah E. TOY born 1853; died 1923

3A James M. TOY, Colonel, Company C, 77th Illinois Infantry

   Make your selection (T,I,F,E,L,A,P,R,D,? for help, or X to exit):

  By typing in one of the select characters, followed by a RETURN, you can enter any of these different areas.  As an example, this is how you might go about leaving a private E-mail message to your Sysop (System Operator -- the person who runs this system).  First, select E to go into Electronic Mail, which will bring you to this menu:

   The following E-mail services are available:

       R => Read message(s)          (read any mail TO or FROM you)
       W => Write a message          (write mail to any other user)
       M => Modify a message         (modify a message you´ve written)
       E => Erase a message          (erase a message you´ve written)
       S => Special functions        (configure your personal mailbox)

(N)onstop, (Q)uit, or (C)ontinue?
   Select a letter from the above list, or ? for more info:

  Now, in this example, you would select W to write mail.  That selection would bring you to this prompt:

   Who do you wish to send this message to?
   Enter User-ID, "?" for help, or just RETURN for "Sysop":

  In this example, you´d only have to hit a RETURN (with no selection) to specify "Sysop".  If you wanted to write mail to someone else, you would simply type in their User-ID here (if you don´t know the whole User-ID, but only know the first or last name, you can just enter what you know, and the BBS will help you find the exact User-ID).

  Now, you´ll be asked for the topic of your message.  After entering in a topic, you´ll be put into the editor.  Depending on whether or not the terminal you´re using to call in with has ANSI support, you may get the Full Screen Editor.  This ANSI editor will act very much like a small word processor, allowing you to use your cursor keys to move around the message.  You can feel free to just type your message as you wish it to appear to your Sysop.  The automatic word-wrap will wrap words at the end of lines appropriately.  Just hit CTRL-G whenever you

   If you don't have ANSI support, you'll get the line editor.  The line editor doesn't allow you to move around with your cursor keys like the Full Screen Editor, so you have to enter your message one line at a time.  (The automatic word-wrap feature will wrap the end of lines for you, just like the ANSI editor.)  When you're all done entering your message with the line editor, and you want to go ahead and save it, just enter /S on a blank line by itself.  If you want to change something about what you've written so far, you can edit the message by typing OK on a blank line by itself.  That will give you this menu:

    EDITOR OPTIONS:

      S)ave message      R)e-type a line
      A)ppend message    D)elete line
      L)ist message      I)nsert line(s)

      H)elp              T)opic change
      U)pload file

    Select an editor option (S,A,L,C,H,R,D,I,N,U, or ? for menu):

   When you're done editing your message, just select S from this menu to save your message.  Then, you'll get this prompt (you come to this same prompt by typing /S in your message instead of typing OK and editing):

    Do you wish to "attach" a file to this message (Y/N)?

   If you answer Y to this question, your topic will be used as the file name (you'll get a chance to re-enter your topic if it's not a valid one), and you'll be asked to upload a file to the BBS.  When the Sysop reads your mail, he'll be asked if he wants to download the attached file.  Answer N if you don't need to send a file along with the message.  After all that, you'll get:

    Do you want a "return receipt" when this message is read (Y/N)?

   In other words, when the Sysop reads your message, do you want an E-mail message to be sent to you immediately, letting you know when the Sysop read it?  Just enter Y or N (followed by a RETURN, as usual) as a response.  You'll then get this prompt:

    Do you want to send a copy of this message to anyone (Y/N)?

   You can send copies of your message to other User-IDs if you wish.  If

FROM THE DESK OF:
MARSHALL STERLING HOWARD
POST OFFICE BOX 2957
CHEYENNE, WY 82003-2957
WYSSAR GENEALOGIST
1-307-632-3946

about 1994

Raymond W. Howard
Box 112
Greenwood, NE 68366

Dear Ray:

I am well aware of your tremendous research efforts on the Howard Family. The more I ponder your relative, Mrs. Athla Tankersle's genealogical data, I think we relate through the Leach, Robinson. Sweets, Dunn's and other allied families of Illinois and Indiana. These families may relate to Eliakim Howard and [2] Margaret Truesdale. I connect through Alanson "Lant" Howard and Elizabeth Sweet. Eliakim and Alanson were sons of Sylvester Howard and wife Lyida Bosworth Sweet.

Sylvester and Alanson Howard were some of Illinois and Southeastern Nebraska's earliest Pioneer Families.

I quote from U.S. Treasury Department Claim Notification #179668, dated November 29, 1904, pertaining to Isaac Steele, as follows:

"In the case of Isaac Steele, private, Co. H, 3 Ind. Inf., and Pvt., Co. F, 70 Ind. Vols., a balance has been found due this office, and a certificate No. 8.429825 &_429826 dated Nov. 25, 1904' has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment, as follows: $42.14 to Francis J. Hart, (child), Anderson, Ind.; $7.02 to Sarah King, (grandchild), Morrisville, Ill.; $7.02 each to Perry Leach, and Susan Howard, (grandchildren), Louisville, Ill.; $7.02 to Martha Grotts, (grandchild), Alma, Ill.; $7.02 to Monroe Leach, 212 E. Martin St., Litchfield, Ill.; $14.04 each to Chas. W. Steele and Isaac C. Steele (grandchildren), all of Ohiowa, Nebr.; $10.53 to Isaac Stringer, (grandchild), Shelbyville, Ind.; $10.53 to Lydia Lawson, (grandchild), R.R. No. 8, Anderson, Ind.; $2.35 each to Alfred Lynch and Hattie Harkey, (great grandchildren), Irving, Ill.; $2.35 to Della Leach, (great grandchild), R. R. D. No. 1, Waggoner, Ill.; $21.07 to John W. German, (natural guardian of Ray Amos, Roscoe Amos & Mollie Amos, great grandchildren), Franklin, Ind.; $10.54 to Effie L. Perry, (guardian of John W. Stringer, Jessie O. Stringer & David G. Stringer, great grandchildren), Elwood, Ind....."

Further, I quote from the Louisville?, Clay County, Illinois, September 11?, 1928 newspaper, as follows:

"PUBLICATION NOTICE

State of Illinois, Clay County, ss. the November Term, A.D. 1928.

HOWARD

Further,I noted the Reynold's family and they connect, I think to, Hazel P. Bridgewater, 106 NE 50TH Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97213, as follows:

Anyway, I am wondering if you would send me a copy of your pedigree. I hope to meet with you, when I travel to Des Moines, to meet with my Aunt, Esther Simpson Rash, Pual's wife. I am not certain, if travel will be allowed, due to a February 3rd, 1995, heart attack, due to complications from-on-set diabetes. The only other relative we know about was my great-uncle, Gilbert L. Howard, who died at age 44. He was married to Fanny Hays, of Southeastern Nebraska, mainly around Tobias or Tecumseh.

REVILO NEWTON, P. C.
M. B. SOULE, Adjt.

The residence of Mr. Nichols, in Drum Creek township caught fire about 9 a. m. Monday, and burned to the ground before anything was saved. Insurance $700.00, not near enough to cover loss.

Just as we are ready for press Dr. Pichler reports the arrival of a little 10-pound maid at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Woodland. Mother and child doing nicely and hopes for Georges immediate recovery. Cigars are in order now.

A series of revival meetings are in progress at the Methodist church. The Methodist church never fails to have big meetings on these occasions, and Rev. Rice is arousing the old time enthusiasm. "Go ye sinner and hearken unto the word of the Lord."

It is with pleasure we chronicle the return of Hon. Revilo Newton as a member of the Montgomery County Bank, which he, in company with O. F. Carson, C. C. Kincaid and J. R. Baldwin entered into co partnership and established what is now widely known as the Montgomery County Bank, in 1883 and up to the present date doing a prosperous business, and will continue to do so under the officialship of Newton, Carson and Kincaid. Hon. Revilo Newton retired from the bank about one year ago and embarked in the real estate and loan business, and by the election of Hon. C. C, Kincaid as Mayor at the municipal election last April Mr. Newton was appointed city clerk, which he now fills with honor and general satisfaction of the council and citizens. Further words of praise from us is unnecessary as Hon. Revilo, during his citizenship, has proven most worthy, and a friend maker, in business and church circles.

Time and space forbid a writeup of the Thanksgiving dinner by the Sherman house, such as it deserves. Will say, however, the menu was not equaled this side of New York. Mr. Sherman, the obliging and popular landlord, showed his generosity and appreciation of the gasopolis on this occasion by extending a cordial invitation to the business men to partake of the costly and bountiful viands, in the preparation of which no pains were spared and of which upwards of 150 guests and friends partook, and not only carrying away with them the best of feeling for the house, a copy of the extensive menu printed by the REPUBLICAN. About supper time the Kid Band, under the leadership of Maj. Prewitt appeared in front of the building and discoursed most excellent and sweet music, and Mr Sherman, the genial landlord, called them to supper, which was served in a la metropolitan style by his courteous caterers.

DIED—Mrs. Abram Powell at her home, two miles southwest of the city, Tuesday, Nov. 24, 1891 of heart trouble; aged 35 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Deceased was born in Mifflin Co. Penn, December 28, 1856. She was married in Illinois, from thence she moved to Cherryvale, Kansas with her husband, two years ago. She was the mother of three children, of which one is dead. She has been a member of the United Brethern church for 15 years; and died in the triumph of living faith. She leaves a husband, two children, sister, and two brothers to mourn her loss.

Husband and children adieu,

JAMES TOY.

But few persons live as long in this world as father Toy. He first saw the light of this world at Camden, New Jersey, Sept. 8, 1800. Born on historic ground and is historic days he seen all the vast improvements of this country. He was born just after the struggle for independedce had ended, and grew up to the years of mannood in the midst of the exciting days connected with the formation of the government. He was living about Camden during the war of 1812, and remembered to the day of his death many things that occurred during that uncalled for war. He was large enough to appreciate the victory over Great Britain. During his life every state has been added to the Union that now forms the mighty galaxy. The vast territory that was then a wilderness has been brought into a high state of cultivation, and the Indian villages have been displaced with great cities. Civilization has taken the place of wilderness; the wilderness has been turned into a beautiful field, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific herds of cattle, fields of waving grain and beautiful homes greet the eyes of the tourist, This great expanse of country is now a net work of railroads; telegragh lines stretch across the continent and around the world; the ocean steamer has brought the old and new world together; innumerable inventions and discoveries help our people to do all kinds of work, and the vast educational institutions of the country have all been developed and perfected in the lite of this man. His life is an exception, in that he has lived twenty years beyond the time alloted to man. His life stretches across three generations. But very few, if any, who came upon the stage of aaction with him suruive. Ninety-one years, 2 months and 16 days make us the span of his life. He was twice married, first to Miss Louisa Lewis, Oct. 10, 1824, the second to Miss Lydia Kord, Dec. 25, 1834. Both marriages occurred at Philadelphia. The last named, after walking on in life with her companion for fifty-five years is left in widowhood. In 1837 he moved from Pennsylvania to Ohio; in 1852 to Illinois; in 1883 to Kansas. He and his wife were converted and united the M. E. church, of New Holland, Ohio, 1840. For fifty-one years, by the help of grace, he maintained a consistent christian life and died in the faith of the gospel November 24, 1891. He leaves a wife, ten children, a number of grand and great grand children to mourn his loss. He had twenty-three children born to him. The people of Cherryvale had learned to respect and love him, and a large concourse of people followed him to his last resting place. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. R. Rice, and his worn out body was laid away to rest as the sun was going down on a beautiful Thanksgiving day. Sleep on thou father of Israel till the day of resection and glorious appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

JAMES TOY

But few persons live as long in this world as father TOY. He first saw the light of this world at Camden, New Jersey 8 September 1800. Born on historic ground and in historic days, he has seen all the vast improvements of this country. He was born just after the struggle for independence had ended, and grew up to the years of manhood in the midst of the exciting days connected with the formation of the government. He was living about Camden during the War of 1812 and remembered to the day of his death many things that occurred during that uncalled-for war. He was large enough to appreciate the victory over Great Britain.

During his life, every state has been added to the Union that now forms the mighty galaxy. The vast territory that was then a wilderness has been brought into a high state of cultivation, and the Indian villages have been displaced with great cities. Civilization has taken the place of wilderness; the wilderness has been turned into a beautiful field, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific herds of cattle, fields of waving grain and beuaitful homes greet the eyes of the tourist. This great expanse of country is now a network of railroads; telegraph lines stretch across the continent and around the world; the ocean steamer has brought the old and new world together; innumerable inventions and discoveries help our people to do all kinds of work, and the vast educational institutions of the country have all been developed and perfected in the life of this man. His life is an exception in that he has lived 20 years beyond the time alloted to man. His life stretches across three generations, but very few, if any, who came upon the stage of action with him survive. Ninety-one years, two months and 16 days make up the span of his life.

He was twice married, first to Miss Louisa LEWIS 10 October 1824, the second to Miss Lydia EKORD, 25 December 1834. Both marriages occurred at Philadelphia. The last named, after walking on in life with her companion for 55 years is left in widowhood. In 1837 he moved from Pennsylvania to Ohio; in 1852 to Illinois; in 1883 to Kansas. He and his wife were converted and united with the M. E. Church of New Holland, Ohio 1840.

For 51 years by the help of grace, he maintained a consistent Christian life and died in the faith of the gospel 24 November 1891. He leaves a wife, 10 children, a number of grand and great-grandchildren to morn his loss. He had 23 children born to him.

The people of Cherryvale learned to love and respect him, and a large concourse of people followed him to his last resting place. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church , conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. R. RICE and his worn-out body was laid to rest as the sun was going down on a beautiful Thanksgiving day. Sleep on thou father of Israel till the day of resurrection and glorious appearing of our God, Jesus Christ.

fo ren, eight of whom survive him. In early manhood he lived in Philadelphia and adjacent places. In 1838 he moved to Pickaway county, Ohio, and fifteen years later to Woodford county, Ills., and from there, in 1883, to Cherryvale, Kans. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church in New Holland, Ohio, in 1840, and lived a faithful, Christian life. He was mild and quiet in his religious exercises, and firm and true in doctrine. After more than half a century of religious life Father Toy came down to his grave in great peace, surrounded by many of his children and grand children and with the blessings of God and of many friends upon him. A few days before his death, calling his children and friends around his bedside he gave them his parting blessing and exhorted them to meet him in heaven. Many ministers and other Christian friends in Ohio and Illinois will remember him as a true friend and faithful servant of God. During his residence in Illinois he was for many years an active worker in the American Bible Society. The home of Father and Mother Toy was the resting place of the itinerant preacher for nearly fifty years. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. R. Rice, on Nov. 26.

THE TRADES CARNIVAL.

A Full List of the Participants.

TWO THOUSAND DOLLAR COSTUME.

Description of the Costumes Worn.

The Trades Carnival which was held at the Opera House Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, Sept. 13 and 14, was decidedly one of the very best entertainments ever given in Cherryvale by home talent. Fifty-two young ladies participated, representing by their handsome costumes the different business houses in the city. All branches of business were not represented, but the stage room was overly crowded as it was, and the beauty of the display would have been marred by more representatives. The costumes were all neat and tasty, and several of them quite expensive. When the hour of 8 arrived, on Friday evening, the Opera House was well filled by the leading people of the city, and at 8:30 the companies, six in number, headed by their drill master, Mr. A. G. Hall, marched in single file from the drill hall to the Opera House, and soon after companies 1, 2, and 3, appeared on the stage amid uproarous applause and went through with a very pleasing drill, which was closed by a hollow square being formed and a "parade rest" position taken. Compaines 4, 5, and 6, then filed on to the stage and were greeted with cheers. They were drilled separately a few moments and then the entire six companies were manipulated in a manner to reflect great credit on Mr. Hall and the young ladies. Applause greeted many of the handsome movements, which, considering the crowded condition of the stage, were performed remarkable well. The companies were headed as follows: No. 1, by Miss Carrie Prewitt; No. 2, by Miss Minnie Newton; No. 3, Miss Luetta Bell; No. 4, by Miss Addie Plowman; No. 5, Mrs. C. A. Paxson; No. 6, by Mrs. J. C. Hockett. Much praise is due to Mr. A. J. Hall for his excellent training and the admirable manner in which he conducted the entire performance.

Mrs. J. T. Howard is also deserving of special praise and notice for her untiring and indefatigable efforts to make the Carnival the grand success it proved to be. The young ladies of the "Peak Family," under whose auspicies the Carnival was given, desire to especially thank Mrs. Howard, Mr. Hall, the young ladies who costumed and the business men who were represented, for their assistance and encouragement.

The refreshments served on Friday evening consisted of ice cream, cake, fruit etc. On Saturday evening no refreshments were served, and the drilling was interspersed by a recitation by Mrs. C. O. Wright and also one by Mrs. J. C. Hockett, after which the competitive drill took place, resulting in a victory for Company No. 2, headed by Miss Minnie Newton. The judges were Mayor C. A. Mitchell, Hon. Revilo Newton and Mr. W. C. Logan. Each company did nicely, but the judges saw a little more accuracy and precision of movement in No. 2, than in either of the others.

The entertainment was highly gratifying to all concerned and reflects much credit on the young ladies composing the "Peak Family" of the Baptist church. The gross receipts were about $50, which will probably leave a net profit of about $35 for the family—the Peak Family.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COSTUMES.

Prewitt & Co's. dry-goods house was represented by Miss Carrie Prewitt. She was dressed in an evening dress of black silk with an over-dress of Valenciennes lace. On the right side of the skirt was a panel of light blue plush, which was decorated with kid gloves, napkins, handkerchiefs, arosine, etc., and was caught up with brilliants and bells with silver tinsel. From the panel, across the front of the dress, was a white brocaded, a pink satin and a sea-green surah scarf. The pink scarf came around to the back of dress and was fastened with a brilliant pin. The sash was fringed at the ends with balls of silver and gold tinsel. The green scarf which was short, hung over the pink just at the left side, near the back, and they were caught together with brilliant pins. The white came directly over the front and hung in a fan shaped bow near the bottom of the dress. At the bottom of the skirt, between the white and pink sash, was an open white satin fan. Back of skirt was covered with a white lace curtain over which notions were artistically pinned with many colored pins. The bodice had low neck and short sleeves. Bracelets of spools of embroidery silk, necklace of brilliants long white silk mitts. Back of bodice trimmed with different colôred jet trimming, and veiling, from shoulder down to waist. A long white veil was pinned to each shoulder and hung down over back of the dress. Hair decorated with brilliant pins. In the hand a fan upon which appeared the firm's name.

Montgomery County Bank was represented by Miss Minnie Newton, who carried a star shaped banner, with name of the Bank in gold letters. Her dress white embroidered mull with satin bodice trimmed with bonds, drafts, checks, certificates of stock etc. Representing many thousands of dollars of securities belonging to this popular Bank. While this display was elegant and very valuable, the Bankers exercised caution, as nothing but such securities were used, as could have been replaced, and payment stopped on them, had the whole lot been destroyed. Miss Newton did credit to the great corporation she represented.

Miss Luetta Bell, the worthy representative of Miss Riley's millinery store, wore a handsome black silk with white satin sash. She was profusely decorated with red, gray and blue ostrich plumes. Her hat was a masterpiece of art, which jauntily set off her very rich and becoming costume. Trimmings in lace and gold completed this handsome costume.

The Southern Kansas Division of the A. T. & S. F. road was represented by Miss Addie Plowman, who was very handsomely and appropriately attired in a cream and blue satin, draped with Railroad Posters, photographs of switch engine, banner with A. T. & S. F. thereon in gold. A conductor's cap, silver lantern and burnished punches helped to complete a very attractive costume. Miss Addie proved an admirable representative of that mammoth corporation.

The First National Bank was represented by Mrs. C. A. Paxson, whose costume was literally a mass of gold and currency, amounting in the aggregate to several thousand dollars. She wore a shield-shaped helmet of black with silver edge. "First National Bank" on front in gold, broad band of ten dollar gold pieces, necklace of two and a half gold pieces, bracelets of five dollar gold pieces, girdle of twenty dollar gold pieces, shoulder straps of $2.50, $5.00 $10 and $20 gold pieces, lappels of collar, $2.50, $5, $10 and $20. On front of skirt a frame of $20 gold pieces, thirty-one in number, in shape of a pyramid. Top of skirt in front, below belt, one hundred dollar bills. Helmet trimmed with new Treasury notes of various denominations. Ruching for neck, cuffs and breast trimmings made of new Treasury notes. Skirt trimmed with small fans and other devices made of currency, lithographed drafts, certificates of deposit, etc. Right side of Skirt, broad plush panel on which, in large diamond dust letters, were the words: "First National Bank." Left side same in gold buttons. Mrs. Paxson was the observed of all observers, and did credit to the coporation she represented.

J. C. Hockett & Co., dealers in drugs, medicines, paints, oils etc, were represented by Mrs. Charles Hockett, who was very handsomely attired. She wore a baby blue satin skirt trimmed in tooth brushes. White satin overdress trimmed around the neck and down the front with sponges, and shamois skin. Front paniers trimmed in 1-2 ounce vials, necklace of drachme vials tied with blue ribbon. From left shoulder was suspended a reticule of white beaded net over blue containing patent medicine, artist materials, Florida water etc. Hair worn Grecian dressed with drachme vials; White silk mitts to shoulders, with shoulder knots of blue satin ribbon. In her right hand was carried a morter. White hat of plumes and tipps, in the front a blue band bearing the letters in gilt—"Hockett".

Miss Ella Allison did justice to M. L. Tanner's harness shop in a snuff colored, lap-robe dress ornamented with sash trimmed in celluloid harness rings of assorted sizes.

Combination leather and webb belt from which dangled bridles, curry combs, stirrups, etc. She looked charming in a cow-boy hat, which, with a whip in her right hand, completed her toilet.

C. C. Kincaid's Emporium was represented by Miss Ollie Hummel. Her dress was of white India linen, profusely decorated in front with fan shaped silk handkerchiefs, and on left side with kid gloves and silk ribbons of all the colors of the rainbow ending in tassels. Banner of black with firm name there on.

Miss Carrie Clotfelter looked extremely cute as the representative of Clotfelter & Booth's clothing house. She wore a Prince Albert coat, tall silk hat, carried a nobby cane and over her shoulder hung a tourist's satchel. In her right hand she held aloft a cross surmounted by a gilt star with the words "Clothing House" in bold letters below. Miss Carrie did full justice to the occasion.

The Roller Mills, by Miss Laura Hutchinson, were well represented. Flower sacks deftly arranged composed her dress, a jaunty cap of bolting cloth graced her head and a collar of same material completed a pretty costume.

Smith & Kring's grocery was represented by Miss Florence Corser, in white dress, black sash, firm name in gilt; panel on right side decorated with rice and dried apples. Left side trimmed in cookies, crackers, etc, front in candies, chewing gum, boquet of string-beans, necklace of candy, lower front fringed in candy.

The Santa Fe Round House was represented by Miss Orvilla Corser in a becoming white dress, black fan, red sash, with Round House in gilt letters. A fringe of wiping waste served as an ornament. A natty conductor's cap adorned her head and she carried red, white, and blue signal lanterns and signal flags.

Miss Ella Killion, the "Racket" representative, wore a white flannel skirt with dark hand painted panel in front, on which the firm's name was emblazoned in diamond dust letters. A back drapery of towels, bodice decorated with a water colored silk sash. Velvet, cap, ornamented with gold pins. Carried a fan of velvet, trimmed with lace collars, ribbons, gloves and the word "Racket" in spangles.

I. N. Kesselring's shoe shop was admirably represented by his daughter, Miss Addie, who wore a head dress of morocco leather ornamented with shoe nails, thread, awls etc. Her dress was white, belt of red leather to which was attached tools belonging to the shoe trade. Boot fronts decorated bottom of dress. Midway of skirt was a broad band of red leather, on which, in large silver letters, was the word "Kesselring," and pictures of shoes in silver. Very neat.

Howard & Son was represented by Miss Lizzie Howard. She wore a white Marseilles, with vest front of lace ornamented with breastpins and different designs of rosebud dishes, beaded picture frames, etc. Necklace of gold with a tin tea strainer for a charm. Gold bracelets and oxidized silver hair ornaments. The skirt was tastefully decorated with ruffles of clothespins at the bottom; a red panel on the right side ornamented with a tin soap saver, coffee pot, large tin spoon, pie pans, bread toaster, egg beater, silver knives, forks, spoons, etc. A diagonal panel of red across the front of skirt with "99-cent Store" thereon in letters of diamond dust, below this, lace collars, hose, doll baby, toys etc. The left side was trimmed with napkins, 'kerchiefs, cigars, mugs and other toys.

Keller's Bakery, by Nancy Rountree, was represented as all good bakeries should be, in a pleasing and praise-worthy manner. She was dressed in black, carried a sure enough bread pan, and wore samples of Mr. Keller's excellent cakes and cookies. Her pretty white sash, with the firm name thereon in attractive letters, finished a well arranged costume.

S. A. Brown & Co's. lumber department was represented by Miss Mattie Sweet. Her dress was of dark material, probably silk, upon which appeared samples of brackets, mouldings, shingles, lath, brick, tile, paints, etc. A white sash, with the firm name in gold, completed her unique costume.

The Grain department of S. A. Brown & Co., received proper attention by Miss Ella Foster, who was arrayed in a handsome brown suit, relieved by a tasty white silk sash, upon which the firm name appeared in gold letters. Ornaments in corn, wheat, oats, castor beans, flax, millet, and a necklace and bracelets of corn, made up an attractive costume.

Smith & Kring's meat market was taken care of by Miss Julia Funk, who wore a tan colored dress, butcher's apron. Her ornaments were, a butcher knife, bologna sausage, etc. A black sash with firm name in gilt letters ornamented her shoulders. In her right hand she carried a meat saw, in her left a steel.

Miss Nettie Flowers neatly represented M. J. Flowers' coal yard. Her costume was black with low bodice and short sleeves. Side panels of white with the words "M. J. Flowers, Coal Dealer," in huge black letters. Around the bodice and sleeves was the word "Coal" in large white letters. Black sash with the word "Coal" in white letters, and a cap of black with the word "Coal" in white letters.

J. W. Taylor & Co., dealers in meats, groceries and produce, had, in Miss Emily Hiner, an able representative. She wore a white costume, with a right panel representing a "porker", and a string of crackers, cookies and dried apples on left panel. Fastened to her belt were apples, peaches, lemons, oranges, box of candies and a buckle of gum. A necklace of fancy candies, right hand bracelet of chocolate and left of gum; epaulets of spice, and candies. In her right hand a butcher's knife and in the left a steel.

J. H. Butler's hardware store was represented by Miss Alice Black, who wore a handsome black dress decorated with fringe made of nails, and ornamented tastefully with toasters, graters, egg beaters, spoons, knives, forks, pans, cake cutters, skimmers and numerous other articles.

The Creamery, that newly started but important institution, was gracefully represented by Miss Cora Allison in a becoming white cheese cloth dress, ornamented with black and white letters, butter pans and paddles, and cheese. A red silk sash added much to the pleasing costume.

W. D. Wood's grocery and produce department was represented by Miss Luel Wood arrayed in white, with panel at the side of black, upon which appeared the words rice, tea, coffee and the initials of the proprietor. Decorated with candies, gum, beans, crackers, cookies, potatoes, coffee, apples, lemons, cigars and labeled with advertisements: Dwights' Soda, Pearline, Ivory Soap, etc., and carrying a banner with W. D. Wood's grocery advertisement thereon.

W. D. Wood's dry goods department was represented by Miss Weddie Wood in a costume of black Henrietta cloth decorated with satins, silks, fans, handkerchiefs, towels, thread, ribbons, napkins, hose, gloves, mitts. Hair ornamented with hair ornaments. Carried a fan with W. D. Wood's advertisement thereon.

Miss Lydia Atkisson appeared as the representative of J. H. Butler's clothing house and gents furnishing emporium, fashionably attired in a gents coat, vest, shirt and hat. Mahogany colored skirt trimmed with border of gents ties, white silk handkerchiefs, collars and cuffs were scattered over it in profusion. A costly umbrella was deftly carried, while a colored eyeglass, through which she viewed the audience, added distinction to the distinguished looking representative. A handsome blue sash graced her person, upon which was emblazoned in gold letters the name of the firm.

The grocery house of R. M. Corser was represented by Miss Ethel Corser, who wore a dress of white embroidery, with plain panels down each side with black strip across the end, ornamented with white beans, green coffee and rice. The white was trimmed in cloves, candy, onions, potatoes, tomatoes, apples, crackers, lemons and gingersnaps. The front of dress was neatly trimmed with candy and chewing gum, the back with coffee papers, soap and salmon labels; the waist with candy, cloves, cinnamon and a strip of black, from the right shoulder to left side with "R. M. Corser" printed in rice.

The Fair was represented by Miss Fronia Wright in white robe dress, blue sash, with name of firm in gilt letters. Black panel embroidered with rice and beans. Ornaments, clothes wringer, clothes sacks, wash board, pail. Necklace of candy; hat covered with cabbage and tomatoes, dress with crackers, soap, pipes, whisp brooms, etc.

Mrs. S. A. Dodds', millinery house was ably represented by Miss Nellie Bennett, costumed as follows: White India Linen dress, adorned on the right side with a navy blue velvet panel and on the left by a red satin panel, front ornamented with bows of ribbon, sash of surah, red, cream and blue; mammoth leghorn, trimmed in tips, lace and flowers. Bird on each shoulder.

The Cherryvale REPUBLICAN was represented by Miss Rilla Sparr, who was arrayed in a handsome bluish green paper suit, with bracelets and necklace of new type wired together for the purpose. A fan to match suit upon which the word "REPUBLICAN" appeared in black letters. Pointed belt with name of paper thereon. Cap also to match.

Miss Laura Sweet represented the dry goods department of "The Fair" the first night in white lace dress over pink, green surah sash, blue silk mitts to shoulders, necklace of steel bangles, bracelets of pearl buttons, ribbons and handkerchief on shoulders. Hat made of white feather fan, trimmed in lace ties and ruching. Ornaments in the hair. Second night, wore a costume of red and green plush, black silk lace yoke and sash. Cap of old gold plush with rope silk tassels. Badge with "The Fair" printed on it in gilt letters. Carried white satin fan.

The Notion department of "The Fair" was represented by Miss Lelia Campbell who wore a dress the first night made of lace curtains with Turkish towel front and red handkerchief sleeves. Left side panel of bordered towels, decorated with combs, right side embellished with handkerchiefs napkins, hose and kid gloves. Around the waist a sash of white napkins with red border. White silk mitts, necklace of spools of silk, sleeves tied with blue and green ribbon, hat of white Turkish toweling and swans down. Second night Miss Lelia represented the notions in a dress of satin and plush; the front, peacock blue plush with side panels of canary satin, back of blue plush and orange satin, low neck waist of canary satin, with cream colored silk lace yoke, blue silk mitts to the shoulders, a bow of blue ribbon on one shoulder and one of pink on the other. pink ribbon sash, badge of light blue, with "The Fair" inscribed thereon, diagonally across front of skirt, front of waist heavily ornamented with jewelry.

H. K. Swift's store was represented by Miss Stella Ball, who wore a plain white dress, the puffs on the sleeves of which were of bordered handkerchiefs. On the right side of skirt was a panel of black muslin on which the name of the firm appeared in letters of rice; on the opposite side was another panel of bordered handkerchiefs. The front of dress was embellished with loops and bows of pink and blue ribbon. She also wore a pretty sash of orange colored cashmere.

The costume of Miss Mattie Cobb, the representative of Asdel's Post Office Book Store, was neatly and tastefully ornamented with envelopes, marking tags, pencils, penholders, small books, tablets, holiday cards, and epaulets; the latter in the shape of crossed meerschaum pipes. Miss Cobb's hair was dressed with colored pencils and penholdes and these, together with the items mentioned above and such others as tooth brushes, fishing tackle, hand mirrors and an appropriately inscribed banner, combined to make her appearance do honor both to herself and the establishment she represented.

L. F. Cramer, the photographer, was represented by Miss Myra Cramer. She wore black satin, red sash, and had 13 fine photographs artistically arranged on her person. Her costume did her credit.

Logan Bros., had an excellent representative in Miss Amy Rice, who was becomingly costumed. Conspicous on her pale pink dress was a handsome panel of dark velvet, ornamented in unique designs of candy. A boquet of cigars, decorations of paper napkins, bracelets of nuts, headdress of paper, ear-rings of candy and a sash with the firm name in gold letters thereon completed a very pretty costume.

Mae Sweet represented Toy Bros'. carriage factory. She wore a pink dress trimmed in horse shoes and horse shoe nails. Patent leather belt, collar, cuffs and side panel on which the firm's name appeared in gold letters. A bronzed horse shoe on each shoulder set off her unique costume.

The farmers had in Miss Hattie Lowell, a very sweet and pretty representative. She wore a neatly fitting dress of white Victoria Lawn, trimmed in different kinds of grain, with necklace and bracelets of same. The farmers of Cherry Valley owe Miss Lowell many thanks for the charming manner in which she represented them.

Miss Laura Gault represented the Cherryvale Champion. She was appropriately attired in a dress constructed of newspapers, and set off by a sash with the word "Champion" thereon in zig-zag gilt letters.

G. A. Butler's jewelry store was represented by Miss Flo Sweet. She wore a black dress, blue brocaded satin sash, with firm name thereon in gilt letters, and fastened at the waist with gold lace pins. A girdle of watches and napkin rings, a panel of knives and forks on the right side. Gold chains and rings draped artistically across the front of skirt on a background of blue plush. Epaulets of teaspoons, sugar shells, and mustard spoons, and reveres of gold chains on the front of the bodice. Gold necklace, chain, rings, and bracelets. Miss Flo Sweet looked lovely and [illegible] represented.

Mrs. J. C. Adams' dressmaking establishment was represented by Miss Emma Hill, who wore a dress of black and pink sateen, black lace and pink ribbon. Pink silk Toque with pink tips. Colored figures cut out and sewed together to form panel. Model tied with pink ribbon across left shoulder.

Wells Fargo Express was represented by Miss L. May Adams. Dress of blue and cream sateen, cream lace and cream ribbons. Fargo messenger cap and sack of small packages, money envelopes, tied on strap of sack which hung over the left shoulder and under right arm. Very neatly and appropriately attired.

A. J. Pitzer's drug, wall-paper and jewelry store was represented by Miss Kate Orr, dressed in oriental splendor with waist composed of blue tissue paper, with vest of crimson flock; flowing sleeves trimmed with sponges. The front breadth of the skirt was blue, gilt and crimson striped wall-paper, trimmed at the bottom with a pointed piece of crimson flock and in each point was placed curtain rings of steel and bronze. The side gores were of the crimson flock beautifully lettered in gilt. The back was of dark material trimmed around the bottom with a deep border of gilt, blue and crimson wall-paper. Over the back hung a sash and loops of blue tissue paper. She also wore a Fountleroy collar of Conory tissue; Tam O'Shanter cap, crown of blue tissue, band of flock elaborately trimmed in capsule beads and white felt corn plasters. For jewelry she wore a heavy gold necklace with a diamond cross, watches, pins, bracelets, rings and epaulets of pocket books and chains.

Frank Yeager's barber shop was represented by Miss Nettie Pearson who was becomingly dressed in red, white and blue, with red, white and blue cap and sash. A panel of razors adorned one side of dress. She carried a banner of blue plush with the name of the proprietor inscribed thereon.

E. B. Wood's handsome shoe emporium was ably represented by his daughter, Miss Effie, who wore a white embroidered mull dress with a black silk bodice trimmed with button-hooks, and a girdle of button hooks on each end of which was an infant's shoe. Necklace and bracelets of shoe buttons and an infant's shoe on each shoulder. The hair was ornamented with button hooks uniquely arranged. A panel of shoes on one side of dress, and in front a panel with the proprietor's name thereon in shoe buttons.

Miss Bertha Morning represented Morning Bros., dealers in furniture. She wore a white dress, golden brown plush sash fringed with gilt curtain rings. Plate of furniture cuts on one side and a gilt ornamented paper pocket on the other side. Carried a handsome gilt tipped curtain pole covered with blue plush.

Miss Frank Reed, who represented "Edmondson, The Tailor" wore a suit of dark and white. On the front of dark skirt in letters of gold was the name "Edmondson The Tailor." On each side of skirt was drawn in gold, a coat, and around the edge of skirt was a border of his advertising cards. The waist, fashioned after the Grecian Models, was of dark and white,—across the white front was the name "Edmondson." She carried a pair of shears in her hand.

Miss Eva Quick represented telegraphy dressed in white Indian linen, with a telegraph wire girdle, a telegraph instrument on each end of girdle, also one on each shoulder. Head adorned with a gilt crown.

The Hardware house of H. T. Wright & Son was represented by Mrs. C. O. Wright, who wore a red dress, low neck and short sleeves, trimmed with cream lace, with gloves to match. Necklace of padlocks and chains, shoulders draped with brass chains and small nickel padlocks, epaulets of tin cups. Girdle and sash of chains, decorated with pocket scissors and silver plated forks—revolver protruding from belt. Skirt trimmed with pepper boxes, nutmeg graters, pattie pans, keys, rattle boxes, match safes, etc. Bracelets of padlocks and chain. Carried tin pan the inscription on which was "Wright & Son." Mrs. Wright's costume attracted general attention from the fact that it was an ample and faithful exhibit of the business she represented.

Prewitt & Co's., grocery department was represented by Miss Lottie Prewitt, clad in a wine colored silk dress, low neck and short sleeves; bodice trimmed with cream lace, skirt with black velvet panels. A band of crackers around lower edge of skirt, relieved by a border of clothes pins. On the right side panel were the words "Coffee," "Rice," and "Sugar," made of each article. On the left side panel were oranges, candy, nuts, apples and potatoes. A necklace of eggs graced the ensemble. The front of dress was artistically decorated with toilet soap and dried apples, and from the right shoulder hung packages of smoking tobacco, and from the left, packages of bird seed. Bracelets of dried apples. A crown, decorated with cigars, on which was the name "Prewitt," adorned her head. Hair trimmed with flowers and cabbage leaves.

A Trades Carnival without young Zeke Howard would be a tame affair indeed. Young Zeke, not to be outdone by the young ladies, donned a becoming petticoat attire, covered his face and hands with burnt cork, and appeared as the representative of Uncle Tommy Teel, the colored gentleman who has a corner on the slop trade in this city. Zeke was rigged for business, having fastened a nail keg to a toy wagon, which he drew behind him in his march about the stage. His appearance was always the signal for uproarious applause. Zeke you made a hit.

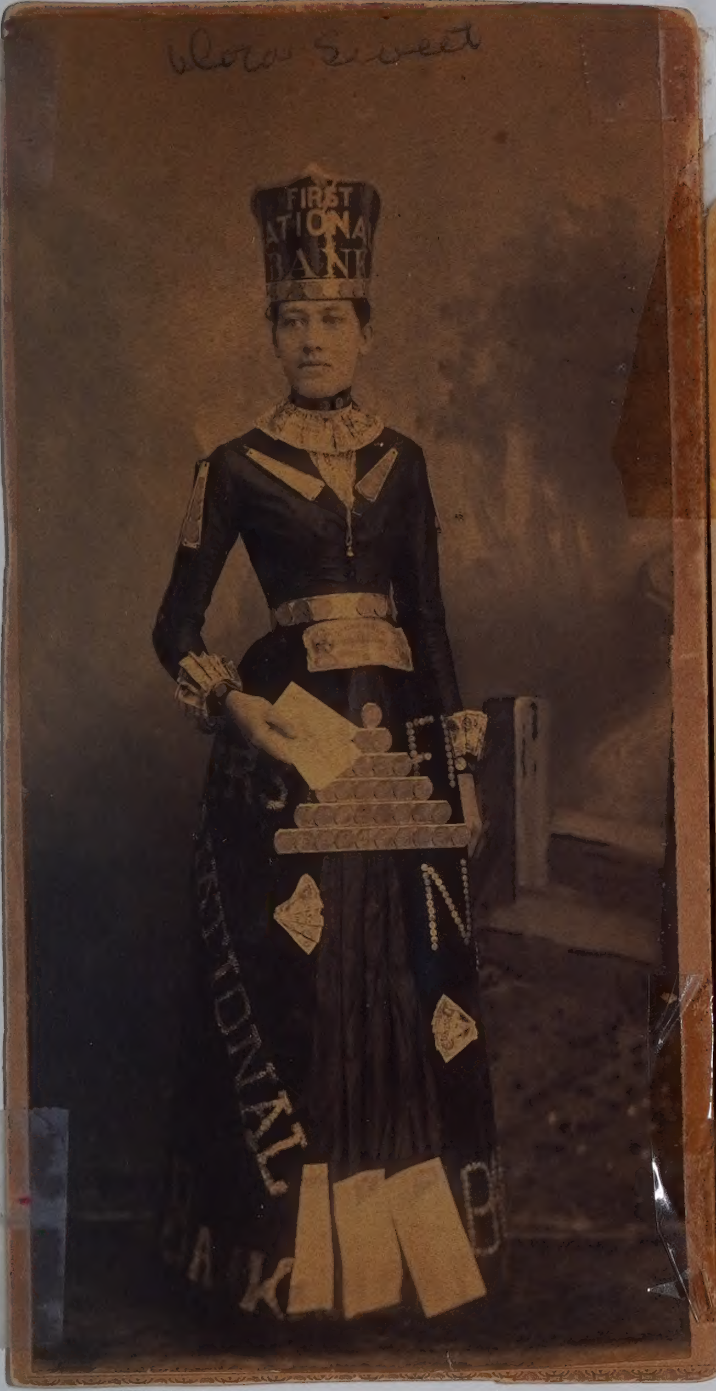
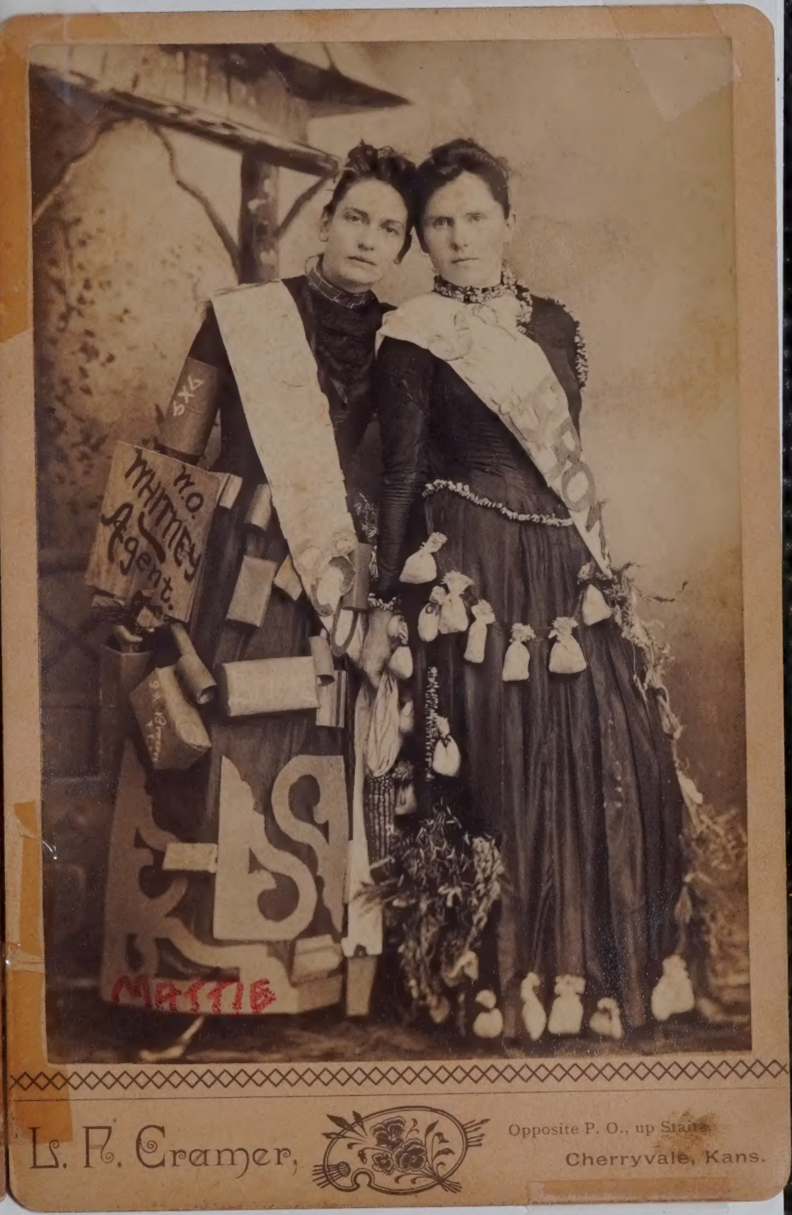
TRADE CARNIVAL 1889





The First National Bank was represented by Mrs. C. A. Paxson, whose costume was literally a mass of gold and currency, amounting in the aggregate to several thousand dollars. She wore a shield-shaped helmet of black with silver edge. "First National Bank" on front in gold, broad band of ten dollar gold pieces, necklace of two and a half gold pieces, bracelets of five dollar gold pieces, girdle of twenty dollar gold pieces, shoulder straps of $2.50, $5.00 $10 and $20 gold pieces, lappels of collar, $2.50, $5, $10 and $20. On front of skirt a frame of $20 gold pieces, thirty-one in number, in shape of a pyramid. Top of skirt in front, below belt, one hundred dollar bills. Helmet trimmed with new Treasury notes of various denominations. Ruching for neck, cuffs and breast trimmings made of new Treasury notes. Skirt trimmed with small fans and other devices made of currency, lithographed drafts, certificates of deposit, etc. Right side of Skirt, broad plush panel on which, in large diamond dust letters, were the words: "First National Bank." Left side same in gold buttons. Mrs. Paxson was the observed of all observers, and did credit to the coporation she represented.

ABBIE SWEET

S. A. Brown & Co's. lumber department was represented by Miss Mattie Sweet. Her dress was of dark material, probably silk, upon which appeared samples of brackets, mouldings, shingles, lath, brick, tile, paints, etc. A white sash, with the firm name in gold, completed her unique costume.

The Grain department of S. A. Brown & Co., received proper attention by Miss Ella Foster, who was arrayed in a handsome brown suit, relieved by a tasty white silk sash, upon which the firm name appeared in gold letters. Ornaments in corn, wheat, oats, castor beans, flax, millet, and a necklace and bracelets of corn, made up an attractive costume.

Death of Richard H. Keith

Richard H. Keith, president the Central Coal and Coke Company died Tuesday morning at his home, 3308 Baltimore avenue, Kansas City, Missouri. He had been ill for the past two years, and during that time had not been actively engaged in business. For two weeks he had been very low and several times during that period his life was despaired of. A few days ago his condition became such that hope of his living more than a few hours was almost given up. He improved, however, but a relapse followed the improvement and he passed away as above stated. He was about 68 years of age.

Called To Rest

~~20 OCT 1905~~

Died at her home in Weir, Kansas, 16 October 1905 after an illness of two months, Mrs. Lydia TOY aged 89 years and three days.

Lydia ECKARD was born near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 15 October 1816 and was married to James TOY 25 December 1836 in Philadelphia.

In 1837 they moved to Metamora, Illinois where they lived a short time and from there to Washburn, Illinois where they lived until December 1882 when they moved to Cherryvale, Kansas residing there until the death of her husband in 1891. Since that time she has made her home with her son, Nelson. At the age of 35 she became a Christian and united with the M. E. Church. She has been a faithful member of the M. E. Church here for the past 24 years.

Grandma TOY as she was familiarly known was one that was loved and respected by all who knew her. Her sweet Christian disposition endeared her to all who had enjoyed the privilege of her acquaintance. She was always thoughtful of those around her and anxious to minister to, and her life can truly be said to be one of loving service. To the hour of her death, she was ready and anxious to be called home. Gently and peacefully as a child going to rest she closed her eyes on this world to awake in a brighter world where sickness, pain and sorrow are unknown. She leaves to mourn her loss eight children, two stepchildren and 40 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren.

The children are: Mrs. S. A. SWEET, Momence, Illinois; Mrs. E. H. SWEET, DeRidder, Louisiana; Mrs. J. D. WILSON, Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. B. D. HOWARD, Fairfield, Nebraska; Mrs. W. G. ABBOTT, Chenoa, Illinois; Nelson TOY, Weir, Kansas; T. D. TOY and J. M. of this city.

The stepchildren are Mrs. Ann MILLARD, Lou Moor, Iowa and Mrs. Mary TALLMAN, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Five of these were permitted to be here.

Her funeral was held at the M. E. Church of this city 20 October at 2:30 p.m. conducted by Rev. Bascom ROBBINS assisted by Rev. A. R. VANORDEN and her remains . . . (balance of clipping missing).

PROMINENT LOW MOOR MAN DIES.

Low Moor, Ia., Nov. 15.—R. B. Millard died at his home in Low Moor last night at 8:30 o'clock after a lingering illness.

Mr. Millard was 89 years of age and had lived in Low Moor since 1852. He was the oldest resident of the county, and the last of the Millard generation. He was postmaster at Low Moor different times for the twenty years, and at one time was county superintendent and held various other offices. He was loved and respected by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn him his aged wife, who has been an invalid for the past thirteen years; two daughters, Miss Lou and Miss Neva, both at home; a grand-daughter, Mrs. C. W. Fishel of Minneapolis; a grandson, Millard Fishel.

The funeral services will be held at the home in Low Moor, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Baker of Mechanicsville will have charge of the services. Interment will be at the Low Moor cemetery.

Obituary.

The funeral services for the late R. B. Millard were held at his home on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of friends and neighbors were present to pay a last tribute of respect to the departed.

Rev. W. N. Baker of Mechanicsville, assisted by Rev. R. N. Dwello, conducted the services. Mrs. W. L. Dannatt and Miss Montague rendered three vocal selections.

The following obituary was prepared and contributed by a very close friend of Mr. Millard and the family:

R. B. Millard

Roswell Broughton Millard was born July 16, 1826, at Glen, Montgomery county, N. Y., died Nov. 14, 1915, at Low Moor, Clinton county, Iowa. In the year 1846, he moved to Wisconsin and taught school for two years. Desiring to complete his education he returned to New York, enrolling in the National Law School and was awarded a diploma in 1853. He then came to Iowa and on Sept. 5, 1855, was united in marriage to Anna L. Toy of New Holland, Ohio. To this union eight children were born, six daughters and two sons. He is survived by his aged wife and two daughters, Lou and Neva, at home, two grandchildren, Mrs. C. W. Fishel of Minneapolis and William Adams of Waukesha, Wis., and two great grandchildren, Millard Fishel and Helen Jane Adams. In the year 1856, he settled in Low Moor, since which time he was actively and creditably identified with its history, filling the office of postmaster for over twenty-five years, resigning in 1913.

Roswell B. Millard was a patient, charitable, kindly soul, a loving husband, fond father, patriotic citizen and good friend. His life was the clean, manly life that spoke volumes for his rigid adherence to the cause of righteousness, his reverence to Deity and devotion to duty. Naturally and unconsciously he was a power for all things good. Endowed by nature with a grand character, magnificent ideals, genial, loyal and true. He commanded and richly deserved the confidence of the entire community to such an extent that to know him was esteemed a privilege.

The Father of us all, He who doeth all things well, has taken home from this earthly home. He now enjoys that quiet, sweet contentment, that peaceful communion with Almighty God which is the reward of a well spent life, leaving to his family the priceless inheritance of honor unstained, the memory of a life's tender and constant devotion.

To his friends the ennobling memory of his exemplary life, the knowledge that the world is better that he has lived and that we are better, having known him.

May he rest in peace.

Mrs. Mary D. Tallman—Former Chenoa Citizen—Crusader—Died in Milwaukee—Sketch of Life by A. H. Copeland.

Mrs. Mary D. Tallman died at the residence of sons Frank and Lafayette Tallman, 814 Wells street, Milwaukee, Wis., at 10 a. m. Sunday, February 7, 1909, aged 82 years.

Mary D. Toy was born in Philadelphia, Penn., February 9, 1827. She was married Lafayette Tallman July 21, 1851 at New Holland, Ohio. Immediately after their marriage they went to Comanche, Iowa, to reside, living there until 1865 when they went to Dixon, Ill., and from there to Beardstown, Ill., coming to Chenoa, Ill., in 1873, where they resided ten years. In 1883 they moved to Chicago, and then to Detroit, Mich., in 1893.

Mr. Tallman died in Detroit, November 20, 1898. After his death she came back to Chicago to live with her sons.

In 1903 she came to Milwaukee, Wis., to live with her sons, Frank and Lafayette. Four sons were born to them, viz; Nelson, Frank, Lafayette and Harry.

Mrs. Tallman was an active and zealous Christian, and it will be remembered her, that during her residence in Chenoa, she was a great worker in the M. E. church, and also very active and zealous he cause of temperance. She was of that noble band of crusaders who prayer meetings in the saloons of noa.

L... near relatives who survive her are Nelson, of Chicago, Frank and Wilwakee, and one sister, Mrs. Anna ...llard, Low Moore, Ia., half sisters, Mrs. Lydia ...bbott, Chenoa, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Chicago, Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet, Momence, Ill., Mrs. B. D. Howard, Cherry Vale, Kan., Mrs. Anna Sweet, De Ridder, La.; half brothers, Thomas, Milton and Nelson Toy, Cherry Vale, Kansas.

Her funeral was held at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Elder Hyde of the M. E. church conducting the services, which were solemn and appropriate. Her three sons and one other friend were the pall bearers. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Chicago, were the only other relatives present. The floral offerings at the funeral were fine.

Owing to physical infimities, she was not able to attend church much during her residence in Milwaukee and for the last two years she could not go at all.

Your correspondent called upon them Saturday afternoon, the day before she died, and while talking to Frank, she came into the room with tottering steps, saying she recognized my voice, and came in to see me. We talked about Chenoa and the people she knew, some of whom are far away. Her mind was very active and her memory good.

Speaking of her ripe old age, she said she could see to read, write and sew, and she expressed the hope that she might not live to be a burden and care upon any one. Her son Frank said:—"Don't cross any bridges, mother, until you come to them."

I left about 5 p. m. She said she hoped I would come again soon. We little thought that she would pass away so soon. Sunday morning they called her. She sat up in bed to arise but fell back unable to do so. Medical aid was summoned, but it was of no avail. She passed peacefully away, apparently unconscious, to that heavenly country from which no one returns, where she is reaping the reward of a well spent life, in the mansions above where neither sorrow nor death can enter.

TOY FUNERAL SUNDAY

Cherryvale Woman Laid to Rest in Fairview Cemetery

Funeral services or Mrs. Ella E. Toy, widow of the late Daniel T. Toy, a Civil war veteran, who died New Year's day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson, 311 East Eighth street, Coffeyville, were held at 3 o'clock here Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends, many who had known Mrs. Toy since she came to Kansas 47 years ago. In the assemblage was a large representation of the Women's Relief corps, of which organization Mrs. Toy was a member. A beautiful array of flowers bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The ladies having charge of the flowers were Mrs. Frank Walterchild, Mrs. Gladys Kline, Mrs. James McCue Mrs. Cora Annon, Miss Bertha Ranken, Mrs. Rex Isaacs and Mrs. Cecil Shives, all of Coffeyville; Mrs. Rex Weiser, Mrs. Homer J. Hendricks, Mrs. J. T. Lewis, Mrs. J. A. Thornton and Mrs. Emmett Veeder, all of this city.

A vocal solo, "No Night There," with Miss Mildred Benham, at the piano, was sung beautifully by Miss Frances McSweeny. A ladies quartet composed of Mrs. Earl Greenstreet, Mrs. Virgie Cox, Mrs. W. H. Hamma nand Mrs. J. B. Fain, with Miss Benham as accompanist, sang the hymn, "Abide With Me." Two funeral dirges, "At Thy Feet" (Greg), and "Traunerei" (Schumann) were played by Miss Benham.

The Rev. Joseph D. Boyd, minister of the Coffeyville First Christian church, gave a touching and impressive service, stressing Psalm 23. He was assisted in the services by the Rev. Robert W. Shaw, pastor of the Cherryvale First Baptist church, who offered prayer.

Immediately following the services the funeral cotege wended its way to Fairview cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her husband, Daniel T. Toy, who preceded her in death June 1, 1926.

The pallbearers were J. A. Thornton, J. T. Lewis, Lou E. Dodds, W. M. McKeehan, George Norris and F. E. Shumard.

Ella E. Toy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hawks, was born April 6, 1856, at Bloomington, Ill. She was 75 years, three months and 25 days old when she died. Forty-seven years ago Mrs. Toy came to Cherryvale with her husband and since that time had made her home here. She lived at 506 East Fourth street, and was taken to Coffeyville about ten days ago following a paralytic stroke, to be near her daughter, Mrs. Huddleson.

Mrs. Toy was beloved for her kindliness, her interest in the welfare of others and her devotion to members of her family. Her happy outlook on life was shared by her many friends in a beneficial way, and her cheerfulness was reflected in all who enjoyed her. Her smiling countenance will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Cunningham of Wellington, and Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson, Coffeyville; and two sons, Thomas D. Toy of Cherryvale, and E. H. Toy of Kansas City. One sister, Mrs. Ida Ohmot of Bloomington, Ill., and three grandchildren, Miss Elizabeth and Toy Cunningham of Wellington, and Betty Huddleson of Coffeyville, also sunvive. One sister, Mrs. Mary McColm, died two months ago at Bloomington.

Mrs. Toy was a charter member of the Cherryvale First Christian church, a member of the Women's Relief corps of Cherryvale Hackleman post, and of the Security benefit association.

Interment in charge of the McDaniel funeral service, was in Fairview cemetery.

Among the relatives and friends here to attend Mrs. Toy's funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cunningham and daughter, Elizabeth and son Toy, of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whitington, Mrs. Adeline Mehl and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wareham, Mrs. Charles Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Stayton, Bussman Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shives, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pool, all of Coffeyville, and E. H. Toy, of Kansas City.

Hamma nand Mrs. J. B. Fain, with Miss Benham as accompanist, sang the hymn, "Abide With Me." Two funeral dirges, "At Thy Feet" (Greg), and "Traunerei" (Schumann) were played by Miss Benham.

The Rev. Joseph D. Boyd, minister of the Coffeyville First Christian church, gave a touching and impressive service, stressing Psalm 23. He was assisted in the services by the Rev. Robert W. Shaw, pastor of the Cherryvale First Baptist church, who offered prayer.

Immediately following the services the funeral cotege wended its way to Fairview cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her husband, Daniel T. Toy, who preceded her in death June 1, 1926.

The pallbearers were J. A. Thornton, J. T. Lewis, Lou E. Dodds, W. M. McKeehan, George Norris and F. E. Shumard.

Ella E. Toy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hawks, was born April 6, 1856, at Bloomington, Ill. She was 75 years, three months and 25 days old when she died. Forty-seven years ago Mrs. Toy came to Cherryvale with her husband and since that time had made her home here. She lived at 506 East Fourth street, and was taken to Coffeyville about ten days ago following a paralytic stroke, to be near her daughter, Mrs. Huddleson.

Mrs. Toy was beloved for her kindliness, her interest in the welfare of others and her devotion to members of her family. Her happy outlook on life was shared by her many friends in a beneficial way, and her cheerfulness was reflected in all who enjoyed her. Her smiling countenance will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Cunningham of Wellington, and Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson, Coffeyville; and two sons, Thomas D. Toy of Cherryvale, and E. H. Toy of Kansas City. One sister, Mrs. Ida Ohmot, of Bloomington, Ill., and three grandchildren, Miss Elizabeth and Toy Cunningham of Wellington, and Betty Huddleson of Coffeyville, also survive. One sister, Mrs. Mary McColm, died two months ago at Bloomington.

Mrs. Toy was a charter member of the Cherryvale First Christian church, a member of the Women's Relief corps of Cherryvale Hackleman post, and of the Security benefit association.

Interment in charge of the McDaniel funeral service, was in Fairview cemetery.

Among the relatives and friends here to attend Mrs. Toy's funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cunningham and daughter, Elizabeth and son Toy, of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whitington, Mrs. Ad[illegible]ne Mehl and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] P. When the family removed from Washburn, Ill., to Cherryvale, Kans., in 1882, James was six years old. It was here that he received all his preliminary education, being graduated from the Cherryvale high school in 1896. While still a boy he became a member of the Presbyterian church at this place and was an earnest and dependable worker in the activities of the church. ambitious of a broader education he entered Washburn College at Topeka, at the completion of his high school course, and was graduated with the A. B. degree in 1900, having chosen medicine as his profession he entered Rush Medical College, Chicago and received his degree of M. D, in 1905. Returning to Cherryvale he practiced his profession here until 1909, when he was made company physician to the Long-Bell Lumber Co., with headquarters at De Ridder La. He filled this position with an unusual degree of honor and skill and was still on the company's staff with added recognition when an untimely death claimed him.

While yet a student in Rush in 1901, he was married to Miss Lutie McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. C. McCormick of this city. With her are two daughters, Florence and Blanche and one son, Harold, who are left to mourn his loss. Of his immediate family, there survive him his mother, Mrs. J. M. Toy of this city, a sister, Mrs. O. M. Davis of Parsons, and two brothers, Ross C. Toy of Cherryvale, and Roy F. Toy of Newton. Another sister, Myrtle, preceded him to the great beyond in 1909 and his father in 1915.

THOMAS D. TOY DEAD

Civil War Veteran and Resident of Cherryvale for 40 Years, Passed Away at 9:50 O'clock Last Night

Thomas Daniel Toy, aged 84, a veteran of the Civil war and a resident of Cherryvale for forty years, died last night at 9:50 o'clock at his home, 506 East Fourth. Death followed a stroke of paralysis which he suffered about a year ago. For the past two months he had been bedfast and bore all his sufferings patiently. Funeral arrangements were not completed today, but burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Thomas Daniel Toy, eldest son of James and Lydia Toy, was a native of Ohio, having been born at New Holland, Pickaway county, on March 24, 1842. Comrade Toy volunteered his services in the Union army at the outbreak of the Civil war, serving with Co. I, 47th Ill., and Co. G, 71st Ill. Following his demobilization from war service, he was married to Miss Ella Munsell of Chenoa, Ill., December 31, 1873. They were the parents of ten children, four of whom are living. These are: Mrs. Ruth Huddleson, Coffeyville; Mrs. Minnie Cunningham, Wellington; Earl Toy, Center Hill, Fla.; and T. D. Toy Jr. of Wichita Falls, Texas. Those deceased are: Leon Toy, who died

A TRIBUTE TO MISS FLORENCE TOY

—1930—

By J. V. Tinnin

From Baptist Message—

(Miss Florence Toy, age 26, a member of the music faculty of the State Normal College and accompanist for the Evangeline choir of the First Baptist church of Natchitoches, died of colitis Sunday noon, July 27, at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, La. She was buried at Cherryvale, Kansas, July 29.—Editors note).

We always called her Florence, not through famiality, but because of our affection fof her. She, together with her sister, Blanche, were original members of the Evangeline choir of the Natchitoches First Baptist church. That was back in 1925. Florence was singing in the alto section. Three years ago she was made accompanist. At the same time Blanche was advanced to the position of director. I have watched her at the organ or piano through church services and sacred concerts. I have seen her in long grilling rehearsals, playing the same measures over and over while the sections of the chorus were learning their new parts. She showed much patience and love for her choir. She had an optimistic and winning smile, a smile that was worth working for. It seemed to make them look at music from a different point of view, a finer point of view, her point of view. There was nothing indefinite about that smile. It meant something. When they failed she did not "tear a passion to tatters," as is common among artists, she just did not smile, and that made them feel far more savage with themselves than any amount of words could have done.

Her failing health dated back to a case of intestinal influenza in 1928. That winter the Evangeline choir filled their annual broadcasting engagement in Shreveport. Of all that company of sixty-five people, but few of us knew the effort Florence was making in order that the choir might fill its engagement. A few minutes before they were to go on the air, the director called the soloists and other principals aside for final instructions. Seated near an open window, Florence listened to the instructions. I told her that I was afraid she was over-taxing her strength. She replied, "set a glass of ice on the piano, have the announcer call the station, and don't worry, everything will go off all right." Some months later a friend in another state, who had listened-in, saw me in New Orleans. He had many things to say about that program and he concluded his compliments by saying "and the work of your accompanist was wonderful."

If there was any criticism to make of Florence Toy it would be this: She was too game for her strength.

I called the night her mother took her to New Orleans for treatment. That was the last time I saw her. Realizing that the family would be separated for an indefinite period of time, I did not remain long. In parting I said, "you have faced many an audience with me; I wish I could go along and face your troubles with you. I shall always be near you in spirit." I bade her goodbye, and she said, "I am coming back—I am coming back with roses in my checks!" That was four months ago.

Sunday afternoon I received a telegram from a member of the family stating that Florence had passed away. A few minutes later a friend phoned me the same intelligence. They had received the news by long distance from an attending physician and friend. Wanting to know more of the details but not caring to hear it over the phone I made an appointment to call. Seated on a veranda overlooking the placid waters of Cane River lake and picturesque plantations beyond, a scene which we remembered as one dear to her, I listened to an account of the closing scene in the brave life of the one we loved.

"As you know," they began, "the doctor abandoned all hope ten days after Florence had fought and lost what we hoped would be a winning fight. Five days ago he told her that he had done everything that he could do or that medical science could afford. She received the news with stoical composure. That was the time when the head nurse called and told us to put Blanche on the night train for New Orleans. The end came shortly after noon today. She was conscious to the last. At 12:30 she kissed them all goodbye and a few minutes later dropped off to sleep. That was all."

"There is something about it all," I said, "which reminds me of the last time I was with her." And I related briefly her promise to return with roses in her cheeks.

Perhaps she thought she was coming back, or peraps she had in mind that Great Day when she would return with the "Choir Invisible," when she would have a new body, one "like unto His own glorious body." I think that was her way of looking at things and saying things to keep others from worrying. I have many reasons for believing that. But perhaps she did think she would soon be well and home again when she told me that she was coming back with roses in her cheeks. I know she wanted to come back. And when the order for flowers was being telegraphed to CherryVALE AND THE GIRL AT THE DESK ASKED, "OF WHAT SHALL THE FLORAL OFFERING CONSIST?" I SAID, "ROSES!"

TOY FUNERAL SUNDAY

Cherryvale Woman Laid to Rest in Fairview Cemetery

Funeral services or Mrs. Ella E. Toy, widow of the late Daniel T. Toy, a Civil war veteran, who died New Year's day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert J. Huddleson, 311 East Eighth street, Coffeyville, were held at 3 o'clock here Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends, many who had known Mrs. Toy since she came to Kansas 47 years ago. In the assemblage was a large representation of the Women's Relief corps, of which organization Mrs. Toy was a member. A beautiful array of flowers bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The ladies having charge of the flowers were Mrs. Frank Walterchild, Mrs. Gladys Kline, Mrs. James McCue Mrs. Cora Annon, Miss Bertha Ranken, Mrs. Rex Isaacs and Mrs. Cecil Shives, all of Coffeyville; Mrs. Rex Weiser, Mrs. Homer J. EMMA H. SWEET

1840 1932

Last Sunday, we stood in loving memory of Mrs. Emma H. Sweet, one of our most dearly beloved members, who passed away June 30th at the age of 92 years. Mrs. Sweet was given the title of "Our Class Mother," because she was ur oldest member. We are sure that all will remember her lovely picture on the front of our Class paper, on Mother's Day, two years ago. The memory of her beautiful Christian life will always be an inspiration to us and make Heaven seem nearer and dearer.

"And death itself to her, was but
The wider opening of the door
That had been opening, more and more,
Through all her life, and never was shut,
And never shall be shut. She left
The door ajar for you and me,
And looking after her, we see
The glory shining through the cleft."

Elizabeth Gill Toy, the second daughter of James and Lydia Toy, was born in New Holland, Pickaway County, Ohio, Jan. 24, 1839.

In 1853 she came with her parents from Ohio to Metamora, Illinois, where they lived a short time, going from there to Washburn, Illinois.

On March 9, 1856, a double wedding occurred in the Baptist Church at Washburn, the Rev. Mr. Merret, then pastor of the church, officiating. The participants of the ceremony were Solon A. Sweet and Elizabeth Toy, Sylvester Howard and Rachel Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet made their home in Washburn until 1866, when they moved to Chenoa, Illinois, where Mr. Sweet was engaged in then pastor of the church, officiating. The participants of the ceremony were Solon A. Sweet and Elizabeth Toy, Sylvester Howard and Rachel Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet made their home in Washburn until 1866, when they moved to Chenoa, Illinois, where Mr. Sweet was engaged in the lumber business. In 1872 they returned to farm life and farmed in and around that locality until the spring of 1882, when they departed to Cherryvale, Kansas, where they continued to live until the spring of 1893, at which time they returned to Chicago, where Mr. Sweet passed away in 1895.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet were members of the Baptist Church and it is a self evident fact, that he and his wife could be trailed over a goodly part of Illinois and Kansas by the Sunday schools and churches they had helped to organize.

In 1897, the widow and her children and their families moved on a farm east of Momence, and resided there until 1900, where it seemed wise to no longer keep the home intact, two of the sons having moved to De Ridder, Liousiana.

During the latter years of her life she spent with her sons at De-Ridder and with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Wooley in Coloma, Michigan.

With the increase of years came also the sorrow which all are called upon to bear and she was called upon to experience the home going of two of her sons. In the years following she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wooley, and lived at Coloma until June 19, 1933, when she came to spend the summer with her son, Edgar, in Momence, and never was able to return to Michigan, but slipped away March 16, 1934.

Of the family of six children, one daughter and one son remain.

During her 95 years she has seen many changes, and new inventions, and was always greatly interested in the affairs about her. As long as her health permitted she enjoyed doing missionary work in the localities in which she had been permitted to live. During the later years of her life she was an invalid and was unable to go to Sunday school and church and do the things she so dearly loved to do.

Funeral services were held at the Canaday funeral home Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. E. F. Muir, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. She was laid to rest in the cemetery of Chenoa, Illinois.

The cakes of ice being moved away at the lake will weigh considerably above one hundred pounds apiece. Garfield Peck and those who let them drop on their toes occasionally, positively believe that they weigh not a pound less than a ton.

Miss Bernice Scott is at home this week, the authorities having closed the school in Evans district, where she is assistant teacher, from fear of smallpox.

60 YEARS AGO - 1933

Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet observed her 94th birthday anniversary on Tuesday, January 24th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C.L. Wooley, in West Coloma, where she has resided for several years. Mrs. Sweet has three sisters, all younger than herself.

Dear Mr. Toy:

I appreciated your letter of October 31, and I have passed your request on to our Marketing Department and I am sure that you will be hearing from them shortly in connection with a Toy National Bank calendar.

It is always interesting hearing from someone with the name Toy and we have on occasion inquiries such as the gentleman whose name was James I. Toy and was president of the Savings & Loan Association in Rockford, Illinois. The founder of our bank was Mr. James F. Toy and he was quite a man in banking circles. He organized his first bank in 1883 and at one time owned as many as 30 banks in Iowa, Nebraska, and South Dakota.

I am enclosing a copy of our latest Financial Statement and hope that you do get some mileage with your friends. Thank you for writing.

Yours very truly,

Olson
